Movements of the Enemy at Madison Court-House.

Reconnoissance in Force by Gen. Kilpatrick.

Sharp Fighting on Saturday with Stuart's Cavalry.

A Considerable Number of Our Men Captured and Retaken.

Our Forces Fall Back Toward Culpepper.

Supposed Movement of A. P. Hill to Cut Our Railroad Communication.

General Meade Prepared to Check Him.

BOLD DEPREDATIONS BY GUERRILLAS.

WASHINGTON, Sunday, Oct. 11.

A letter from the Headquarters of the Army of the Potomac, says: For two or three days past the enemy have been concentrating a heavy force around Madison Court House, and Friday night and Saturday morning they moved out of town in a northwardly direction. A division of infantry, a large body of cavalry and considerable artillery, were occasionally seen by our signal men through openings in the forest, which generally conceal the road. The object of the movement could not at that time be determined.

Yesterday evening reports from the front represented that early in the morning one of Gen. KILPATRICK's cavalry brigades, consisting of the Fifth Michigan, Fifth New-York, Seventh Pennsylvania and another regiment, attempted a reconnoissance on the south side of Robertson's River, when they were met by a large body of STUART's rebel cavalry. A fight ensued, continuing an hour, when our troops fell back upon the infantry reserves. After another severe contest the infantry were compelled to give way, and a considerable number of them were captured.

A detachment of our cavalry then dashed upon the enemy, retaking all with the exception of fifteen or twenty of the infantry. Our entire forces were then pushed back toward Culpepper, skirmishing on the way, and contesting every foot of the ground. Heavy firing in the afternoon indicated that the contest had been renewed.

Our signal-station on the top of Thoroughfare Mountain was nearly cut off, but the entire party with their property escaped.

It appears to be generally believed that the main body of Gen. A. P. HILL's corps has passed from the left to the right of our front, pursuing an obscure route near the Blude Ridge, intending to make a demonstration on our right rear for the purpose of cutting off our railroad communication. Measures are progressing to give him a fitting reception in that quarter; but should the rebel movement be simply a ruse to cover a heavy attack on our front, we are prepared for it, as the ground has been cleared of everything calculated to embarrass a general and vigorous battle on our part.

The advance of Gen. HILL's corps probably commenced moving from Madison Court-house on Thursday morning, and by this time is between Gourdoine Fork and Astharis River.

It was positively stated yesterday morning that the rebel cavalry and infantry were upon the Sperryville and Culpepper pike.

On Friday, some guerrillas were seen on Pony Mountains, three miles south-east of Culpepper, and are reported to have been secreted in Devil's Den, a cave in the mountain. A citizen, who was required to conduct a scouting party thither, failed to find it, and under the belief that he purposely misled our party, he has been arrested.

GUERRILLAS AT BAILEY'S CROSS ROADS, FALLS CHURCH, AND MUNSON'S HILL.

From the Washington Star, 10th.

About 10 o'clock last night a party of mounted guerrillas appeared at the house and store of WM. PAINE, at Bailey's Cross Roads, and rapped at the door, the family having retired. MILTON PAINE, a son of WM. PAINE, opened the window, when three of the gang, with pistols drawn, told him to let them in and "hand over the greenbacks." On being admitted, they robbed him of $90 in money, and took all his best clothing. They then went up stairs where Mr. PAINE was sleeping, and after making some search, went away, happily for Mr. PAINE, failing to notice his gold watch and a small box near his bed containing $300 in money.

The same party or others visited Falls Church last night, it is reported, and amongst other depredations, robbed a man named IRWIN of $100.

At Munson's Hill they captured DAN'L MUNSON, we hear; but he got away from them during the night.

They showed no little boldness in their depredations, as Bailey's Crossroads is within three miles of Fort Richardson; and other points visited by them are also in close proximity to our lines. The guerrillas wore gray clothes and slouched hats.

OUR SPECIAL ARMY CORRESPONDENCE.

Our Cavalry Battles—Secessionists Brought to Grief—Resignation of Major Knox—Death of Lieut. Stockwell while on Picket—The Suggestion of a Loyal Virginian.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, Friday, Oct. 9, 1863.

The cavalry fights, which Gen. LEE has the coolness to entirely ignore or pass over as of trifling importance, in his official report, the rebel Generals have finally been forced to admit were important, and they now censure the commanding General for his reticence. Gen. LEE, in his official report of the last blundering movement of his army northward, ignored all the cavalry fights, except at Beverly Ford, Aldie and Middleburgh. At the first-named he says the Union troops were forced to retire; of the second he has an impression that the Yankees were beaten; and in the last he admits that the Confederate cavalry were compelled, in turn, to retire, the enemy having been reinforced by infantry. These statements are as wide from the truth as can well be imagined. The movement across the Rappahannock, at Beverly Ford, was solely a reconnoissance, and as such was perfectly successful; nor is it true that our troops there were forced to retire, for they retired only at nightfall and when the object of the movement had been fully accomplished. In evidence of this, it is only necessary to state that the last squadron which recrossed the river, commanded by Capt. HANLEY, of the Ninth New-York cavalry, (Col. DEVINS' brigade of Gen. BUFORD's division, met with but very little annoyance from the enemy; more than this, of dozens of rebel officers with whom I have conversed since that battle, not one of them has spoken of it but as a success for our arms. It is equally notorious that the Confederate cavalry at Aldie were forced from their position east of the town to three miles west of it, and at night our troops occupied the whole battle-ground. There is a grain of truth about the fight on the next day. It is true that our cavalry were supported by infantry as far as Goose Creek; but no infantry were engaged in the desperate fighting that took place between Upperville and Ashby's Gap. Gen. LEE seems not to have heard anything about STUART's discomfiture at Hanover, Hunterstown, Smithburgh, Gettysburgh, Boonsboro, Hagerstown and other places where the Confederate cavalry met with inglorious defeats. It is some satisfaction to find the Richmond Whig admitting that "the cavalry engagements of the last six months have ended with the same old song: 'Our cavalry fell back!'"

DESTITUTION IN VIRGINIA.

The county of Culpepper is to-day barren of everything to support the life of man or beast. The only crops raised—corn and grass, with a few vegetables—have been consumed by the inhabitants, assisted by the invading force, and there is a stream of citizen-applicants every day at the Provost-Marshal General's office asking for assistance. What the poor dupes of rebeldom will do the coming Winter to sustain life, is more than can be ascertained now, unless their old Uncle Samuel comes to their relief. There are a few cows and pigs left yet, but when Winter closes in, as there is no means of preparing them for the shambles, they will hardly be worth butchering. For the first time the strong-headed secessionists of this county are humbled, for starvation stares them in the face, and many of these people begin to realize in practice that the way of the transgressor is hard. I know people who up to quite recently have been the most ardent secessionists, who now assert that they never wanted the Union destroyed, but were forced to move along in the popular current. Those who do not admit this much, do admit—many of them at least—that the scheme of establishing a Southern Confederacy has most signally failed.

DEATH OF LIEUT. STOCKWELL.

Among the recent deaths, I regret to have to announce that of Lieut. GEORGE B. STOCKWELL, of the Ninth New-York cavalry. He died suddenly while on picket duty near Falmouth, Saturday last, of congestion of the brain, superinduced by diseases brought on by exposure. He was much esteemed by his comrades in arms as a man and a soldier.

RESIGNED.

Major CHARLES MCLANE KNOX, of the same regiment, yesterday received an honorable discharge from the service on account of physical disability. Major KNOX, so long as his health permitted, was one of the most active and zealous cavalry officers in the army; but, like hundreds of other brave men, he has been reluctantly forced into civil life, with a view of restoring to its wonted vigor a constitution shattered in the service of his country.

A SENSIBLE SUGGESTION.

A loyal Virginian suggests a plan for clearing the northern counties of Virginia of bushwhackers, and making all the people openly loyal, and with but little expense to the Government, which has its merits. He proposes that the land of traitors be given to discharged soldiers—say 50 acres each, and give them material aid, if necessary, to settle upon these lands. In this way and no other, (at present,) he contends, can Upper Virginia be made actively loyal and capable of self-defence without the aid of United States troops.

THE ARMY OF THE CUMBERLAND

Reinforcements have Reached General Rosecrans.

His Centre Made Stronger and His Flanks Well Protected.

The Bulk of Johnston's Army Sent to Gen. Bragg.

WASHINGTON, Saturday, Oct. 10.

[Special to the New-York Times.]

As some fears have been produced for Gen. ROSECRANS' safety by the published statements that no reinforcements had reached him up to the 8th inst., it may be said that the advices from Chattanooga are satisfactory in this respect. He is not only stronger in the centre, but his flanks are now well protected by fresh troops.

Important Private Letter from Mississippi—The Whole of Johnston's Forces Sent to Bragg—The Feeling in Mississippi—Two-thirds of the People for Reconstruction—Note from the Provost-Marshal-General of Rosecrans' Army.

Correspondence of the Cincinnati Gazette.

CHATTANOOGA, Tuesday, Sept. 29, 1863.

I send you the following private letter, which is one of the many similar ones intercepted by our forces. The information regarding JOHNSTON's forces, and the condition of affairs in Mississippi, will no doubt be of interest to your readers. All of Johnston's forces are now in front of us. The last brigade which is spoken of—MCNAIR's—we have taken prisoners from.

WM. M. WILES,
Lieut.-Col. and Provost-Marshal-General.

MERIDIAN, Miss., Aug. 27, 1863.

DEAR JOE: Your welcome letter came safely to hand this morning. I was quite glad to hear you were still well, and enjoy camp life, as usual, with so much pleasure to yourself. This leaves us all enjoying good health. I have not seen Miss BECKIE and Miss FANNIE lately. I have been so very busy in the Post-office that I have not had a spare moment to devote even to the young ladies.

Gen. Johnston's army are nearly all going to reinforce Bragg. He must be expecting a fight before long. There is one brigade stationed here—Gen. MCNAIR's. I expect it will leave soon. If they do, the Yankees will just overrun us, I am afraid.

News is exciting concerning Charleston, S. C. I do hope we will be able to hold the place, but I am afraid we will not be.

I think Mississippi is going down fast. There are a great many deserters from Mississippi regiments going about now. They say there is no use in fighting any longer—that we are whipped already. I believe if a vote was taken that two-thirds of Mississippi would go for reconstruction. I do think they should be ashamed, but alas! it is so. It is my motto not to give up at all, but to fight to the last.

I see in the Daily Clarion, of yesterday, that a mass-meeting would be held in Enterprise to-day to put Confederate money on an equal with gold and silver. I hardly think, though, that will succeed. If so, speculation will "go up," which will be a great good in the land.

There is nothing of local importance that I can communicate that would interest you. Everything transpiring in the same line of progress.

So I will close this, hoping to receive another of your interesting missives in the course of some time. Excuse mistakes, and write when convenient, to

Yours in friendship,
F. H. EMERSON.

DEPARTMENT OF THE GULF.

Important New General Order—Exodus from the City—Military Movements—Abuses of Correspondents—Activity Among our Cruisers—The Weather—Yellow Fever, &c.

From Our Special Correspondent.

NEW-ORLEANS, Friday, Oct. 2, 1863.

NEW ORDERS.

The new Order, No. 70, just issued by Gen. BANKS, respecting conscription in the First and Second Congressional Districts of Louisiana, [given in the TIMES of Saturday—ED.,] is necessarily creating a great stir among the people. There was some little whispered about the matter some weeks ago, but it was managed so skillfully, and the detectives went so quietly about the work of enrolling the name of every able-bodied man in the place, that when the order at last came out, it was like a clap of thunder in a clear sky.

The order will be found, like all emanating from Gen. BANKS, timely, full of deep meaning, and capable of reaching the hearts of the people. He sets out by showing them the great interest they all have in this great crisis of the country, and then, one by one, appeals to all classes interested in a manner that is irresistible.

During the day or two following the issue of the order, it was evident to even the most casual observer that something or other was deeply stirring the public mind. People congregated, in knots of half a dozen or more, at the various street corners, their heads close together, and evidently discussing the bearing of the order upon the position of each individual one; and many are doubtless at this moment closely calculating where the $300 are to come from, in the event of the inexorable wheel of fortune turning out their names.

The points in the order most skillfully touched are those respecting foreigners, and those who cultivate the soil—the two great classes that would naturally be expected to be most inimical to such a measure. To the first he says: "The Government is entitled to the armed assistance of all those who claim the right of citizens, or seek to share their privileges. Those who covet the profits of trade, disclaiming citizenship and acknowledging allegiance to foreign powers only, remain here by permission and favor, and not of right." To the planters he says: "The first duty of those engaged in the cultivation of the soil, is to protect it from invasion, and those whose interests are inconsistent with a vigorous defence of the Department, or who are indifferent to the invasions of a public enemy, can have no rights which the Government is bound to respect."

This is unmistakable language, and comes directly to the point. The fact is, we have so many patriots here who think that all they have to do is to sit down quietly and call upon the Government to protect them and their property, that it was time to remind them they had duties to perform as well as rights to enjoy. As to those who would go further, and would not only have no objection, but might actually prefer to see Mr. NAPOLEON come here, it was right to let them know that they are here by sufferance only, and not by any right. But whatever may be thought of this measure, it is going to be carried into immediate execution, and will strike a deeper blow at secession here than anything else that could have been devised, while providing us with the necessary material for defence in case of necessity.

EXODUS FROM THE CITY.

Never since my arrival in New-Orleans have I seen the city so completely abandoned by old familiar faces as it is at present. On first coming, one had already a large acquaintance with all the military officers who came on board the North Star on our first eventful trip, and after that, acquaintanceship of course extended itself indefinitely. Now I look around, and in the hotels, the streets, wherever I go, there is scarcely a face to recognize. All my old friends are off to the field, and their places are now occupied by strangers, portions of Gen. GRANT's army—all fine gentlemen, but new to me.

MILITARY MOVEMENTS.

Of these, very little is known as yet, beyond the fact that the ball is now fairly in motion, and that all, so far, is going on well. Whether Gen. BANKS will immediately take the field or not, is not known, but I think the probability is that he will do so shortly.

On the 19th, while the Nineteenth army corps was at Berwick, opposite Brashear City, Gen. FRANKLIN, chief in command, sent out a scouting party of the First Texas cavalry and a section of NIMMS' flying artillery, under Lieut. RUSSELL, the whole under Col. DAVIS, of the First Texas cavalry, to feel for the enemy. They went as far as Bisland and Franklin, but found none of the rebels, who are apparently retreating as we advance.

On the Wednesday morning following Brig.-Gen. MCMILLAN, commanding Third division, moved his men up 18 miles, and encamped a mile above the old Bisland fortification. Brig.-Gen. WEITZEL moved up afterward, and now occupies a position about a mile above MCMILLAN and 10 miles below FRANKLIN.

The latest telegraph news to-day is that FRANKLIN and his forces are all safely in possession of Bisland, all in good health and spirits, ready to move on, and having yet encountered no adventures at all. Of course, by the time this letter reaches you all this will be an old story, and we may have met the enemy and given him a sound whipping; but this is the result of time and distance between us, and there is no helping it.

There was a little stir at the village of Morganzia a few days ago—a small place on the west side of the river—but nothing of any consequence.

As the steamer Emerald was coming down the river on the evening of Tuesday, the 29th, she was met about five miles above Morganzia by the marine gunboat No. 8, and informed by the Captain that the guerrillas were in force near Morganzia to the number of 2,000, with four pieces of artillery, and that it was not safe for the boat to proceed without a convoy.

The Emerald hove to, and the gunboat took the inside, but no guerrillas appeared on arriving at Morganzia, causing the belief that the whole story was false, or grossly exaggerated.

Gen. DANA ordered the boat to remain until further orders. Here it was stated that our forces were engaged with a portion of DICK TAYLOR's men, under command of Col. SMITH. It seems that the Thirty-sixth Indiana were out doing duty about six miles, and clothing and stores were being sent out to them, with a detachment of two companies, when they were intercepted. Gen. DANA immediately sent out a force to engage them, and they sallied forth while the Emerald was still at the levee.

While waiting there a courier came in covered with mud and wet to the skin—the night being exceedingly dark and stormy—and brought some private information to Gen. DANA, which induced him to fire just so much of the outer works of the village as would impede his military operations. What has been the result I have not been able to ascertain; but I have no doubt the number of guerrillas, magnified into a little army of 20,000 men, was nothing more than one of those petty roving bands of thieves that will necessarily continue to infest this region, until the inhabitants themselves, tired of their infernal depredations upon friends and foes alike, will be glad to aid us in catching and hanging them.

We have just made a nice little haul of about a dozen of these rascals, in the neighborhood of Baton Rouge; among them was the famous "Nine Mile Bob"—a fellow named HUNTER, who, with his gang, has been the terror of that part of the country, robbing everybody of everything,—regardless of who and what they were. What will be done with these wretches I know not; but surely we must begin, some time or other, to let them know that they are not regarded as prisoners of war, but thieves, incendiaries and murderers. Col. GOODING, one of the bravest officers at the siege of Port Hudson, deserves great praise for his vigilance and energy in this matter.

CORRESPONDENTIAL ABUSES.

Before leaving war matters, I cannot refrain from telling you that the utmost indignation has been created in this Department by the shameful manner in which the New-York World, of the 19th, in a letter from its New-Orleans correspondent, dated Sept. 11, gave (or rather professed to give, for his errors were not intentional,) a full account of what he imagined the whole of Gen. BANKS' present campaign; not only what he supposed the General was doing now, but what the General might do hereafter.

The correspondent prefaces his lengthy programme of supposed operations with the following very naive remark: "A careful study of the map and knowledge of the roads and routes would enable one to form conjectures as to the just-commenced campaign, and as conjectures are not contraband, there is no special impropriety in communicating the possible plan of operations."

No. What if a correspondent, availing himself of the facilities afforded by his presence in a locality, should happen to lay bare some important secret, and hit the mark,—which this one fortunately has not—and his "conjectures" should become "information" to the enemy against whom we are fighting—thereby ensuring the failure of our cause and the sacrifice of hundreds of our brave men's lives? For what more are spies hung when they are caught?

ACTIVITY AMONG OUR CRUISERS.

Our navy in the Gulf is doing a fine business. The British steamship Sir Wm. Peel was brought in here as a prize, captured off the Rio Grande by the U. S. steamer De Soto, Commander WM. H. WALKER, who also captured the steamtug Leviathan, taken by the Confederate cruiser Teazer from Mobile, off the mouth of the Mississippi. The Sir Wm. Peel was built in England for the Portuguese Government, for a war vessel, at a cost of £70,000. She has on board 960 bales of cotton, worth about $260,000. She is now discharging, and some singular revelations are expected to come to light, as to English sympathy with the Confederate cause.

The following prize vessels are also here and at quarantine, awaiting the formalities of the Prize Commissioners for condemnation.

Steamer Montgomery, from Mobile to Havana—cargo, cotton.

British steamer Alabama, from Havana for Mobile—assorted cargo.

Steamer Warrior, from Havana for Mobile—cargo, cotton.

Schooner Wave, from Havana for Mobile—cargo, cotton.

Schooner Cecilia D., from Havana for Mobile—cargo, cotton.

Schooner Condor, captured off Texas coast—assorted cargo.

Schooner Excelsior, captured off Texas coast—assorted cargo.

Steamer William Bagley, from Mobile for Havana—cargo, cotton.

Steamer Leviathan, captured in Gulf; new vessel built at Chester, Penn.

Schooner Flying Scud, taken off Texas coast.

Schooner Vanguard, taken off Ship Island—cargo, cotton.

This does not look altogether as if Mobile is now undergoing nothing but a "paper blockade."

Oct. 3.—The detention of the Evening Star a day beyond the time fixed for her departure, owing to a great glut of cotton and Confederate prisoners going North, enables me to add a postscript, merely to say that up to the last moment no news of any consequence has been received from the army.

THE WEATHER.

The equinox has just passed over, accompanied by those tremendous waterspouts of rains, alternate hot winds and chilling blasts, which form the horror of the South. To these, however, have succeeded those bright skies and that clear, balmy atmosphere which, on the other hand, make the South at times a perfect Paradise. It is impossible to conceive anything more lovely and cheering than such days as we are now having.

We had some few cases of sickness a week or two ago, and, as usual, croakers and timid people went about whispering, "Yellow fever;" but it is all false. The time is now gone past for anything of that sort. An old physician here, of 26 years' standing, told me that he has known cases where the yellow fever, having established itself at an earlier period, was worse in this month than any other, owing to the great changes of temperature; but that never was it known to make its first appearance so late as this. Believe, therefore, no reports of the kind which may reach you; they are all false.

The people are coming back by hundreds already from the North, and soon we may expect to see the city regain a little of its wonted gay appearance; to which the reopened theatres will lend their share.

If, in addition to this, something could be done to reopen the commerce of the Mississippi, and Mr. NAPOLEON would only condescend to let us know that he is not coming to bother us—a thing not likely now, I should think, after England's final and decisive attitude of neutrality in earnest—trade would revive here and New-Orleans would, in a few months, become one of the most delightful places that anybody would wish to reside in.

NEMO.

THE WAR IN THE FAR WEST.

Gen. Blunt's Position—The Guerrillas.

Correspondence of the New-York Times.

LEAVENWORTH, Sunday, Oct. 4.

We have but little interesting intelligence. Gen. BLUNT is at Fort Scott, recuperating and busy at work preparing to remove headquarters to Fort Smith, Ark. It is apparent that the Border guerrillas are moving south, with a view, in all probability, of reaching Texas. Col. COFFEY has a force of several hundred at Cowskin Prairie, who lately seized our messengers between Forts Scott and Blunt, C. N. Col. WEER reports Jackson County has almost been abandoned by them. So with the other counties. Gen. BLUNT regards their movements as intended and calculated to seriously annoy him in his projected operations, more especially as his small command is being depleted of all the white troops. I wrote you that the Seventh and Eighth Missouri and First Arkansas infantry were ordered back to Southwest Missouri. Now we learn that the Second Colorado (the only regiment of white infantry in Western Arkansas,) has been ordered to Springfield, Mo.

So it goes. Gen. BLUNT never had more than from 5,000 to 6,000 men, and has a territory of 100,000 square miles to hold, with important posts to garrison, and a long line of communication to guard. Gen. STEELE has withdrawn to Helena. PRICE, at Arkadelphia, still has a large force. What is there to prevent him from driving BLUNT out? Nothing but the iron will and indomitable bravery of BLUNT and his men will serve them in this emergency. The General returns to the field some days sooner than was expected in consequence of this withdrawal of troops.

Could he obtain arms, he would be able to organize forces. At least three regiments of Union refugees can be raised at Fort Smith. Also, two or three of blacks. A great many half-breed Choctaws and Creeks are enlisting in the white cavalry. STEELE, COOPER, CABELL, rebel, have all fled to PRICE. Col. CLOUD brought into Fort Smith a large number of Union refugees, nearly 2000, who have enlisted in the new regiments.

A CURIOUS BATTLE IN VIRGINIA.

THE WAR IN VIRGINIA.

FROM GORDONSVILLE.

GORDONSVILLE, Wednesday, Oct. 7.

The prisoners captured at Cedar Run and Culpepper Court-house were brought here to-day. They are Englishmen, and say they do not want to be exchanged.

They report the First, Fifth, Eleventh and Twelfth corps of Meade's army as having gone to assist Rosecrans, and that the Third are guarding the railroad. They also report that all the commissary stores have been sent off, and that the army is falling back.

News from above, brought by citizens, confirms the report that the enemy is falling back to Culpepper Court-house.

REPORTED EVACUATION OF NORFOLK.

The Petersburgh Express says that information deemed every way reliable was received in that city yesterday, that Norfolk has been evacuated by the enemy. It is said that there is not a corporal's guard left in the ancient borough, and but for the presence of one or two dismal looking gunboats, which lie anchored in the stream, our Norfolk people would feel free again.

DEFENCE OF VIRGINIA.

PROCLAMATION OF GOV. LETCHER.

Under date of Sept. 30, Gov. LETCHER has issued a proclamation based upon a recent legislative act authorizing him "to call out force for the public defence." He says:

"This force is to be composed of persons not liable to conscription by the Confederate authorities, and to be officered by these not now in the service of that Government.

Companies already organized as home-guards, under the act passed 14th May, 1862, are not to be interfered with in this organization. Such companies are not liable to be called into the field without their consent. Nor is it designed in this call for volunteers to destroy any existing organizations, but they will be preserved, and are to be armed as a part of the force now called for.

I have caused to be appended hereto the act which authorizes the enrollment of this new force.

The people of Virginia will see in the passage of this law a new determination on the part of the General Assembly to put forth the strength of this Commonwealth in order to protect our citizens and maintain our independence. History has taught us that a united and determined people may be overrun by superior numbers, but that they cannot be conquered if they are firm enough to resist every assault, and in turn to assail their assailants whenever opportunity offers.

We intend not to boast of the force that this State has called into the field, or the treasure she has expended; but we intend to perform our duty to the Confederacy, and to ourselves, faithfully, and to the utmost of our ability. This force is deemed necessary to give to the State the ability to meet emergencies which cannot be promptly met by the Confederate Government, and to prevent the withdrawal of troops from essential positions. And it is sincerely hoped and earnestly pressed upon the people to respond with alacrity to the efforts of their representatives to furnish adequate defence for positions exposed to raids and incursions from a detestable foe. There are still thousands in Virginia who have the patriotism to strike for their homes, their families, their property and the honor and glory of the State. I invite them to come forth now and enroll themselves in these organizations."

THE UNION MEN.

A correspondent of the Richmond Examiner writes from Abingdon, Va., under date of Sept. 25:

"There are numerous ridges of mountains running through East Tennessee, the soil of which is thin and unproductive and mostly covered with original forest. The ridges are inhabited by the meanest and most depraved population on earth, who subsist by hunting, gathering wild honey, killing the stock of the farmers of the rich valleys which stray to the mountains, and, at present, upon the stipend paid them by LINCOLN's minions. These are the true Union men of East Tennessee. They are body and soul LINCOLN's, and valuable tools he finds them. The men are the best bushwhackers in the land, and both men and women daring and accomplished scouts. No movement of our troops can take place in all this country, from the salt works in Virginia to Cumberland Gap or Jonesburgh, accurate information of which is not at once conveyed to the enemy by these people. When the war broke out these people were for sale, and LINCOLN bought them. The judicious distribution of money and promises would have secured them to us; but our Government, conscious of its boundless strength and resources, would not stoop to conciliate a set of breechless vagabonds.

THE VIRGINIA PEACE RESOLUTIONS.

From the Chattanooga (Atlanta) Rebel.

In the Virginia Legislature, the other day, resolutions for inquiring, through a committee, into the state of public opinion at the North on the subject of peace, were summarily rejected by a unanimous vote.

The farmers in various portions of the State held meetings indorsing the action, and resolving to follow the example of the meeting recently held in Albemarle County, in regard to delivering the surplus of produce to the Government.

This action of the Virginia House of Delegates on the proposition to go peace-hunting at the North, adds a fresh lustre to her already brilliant fame. It shows how a people feel who have suffered most in this war, and that Virginia, at least, will never submit to dishonor. She lies prostrate and bleeding at every pore, but her nerve is unsubdued and the fire of her patriotism undimmed. She knows something of the deep infamy and degradation of Yankee dominion, and is resolved to perish utterly, rather than submit to it in peace. "What a terrible rebuke," says the Savannah Republican, "we have here for that cowardly class who, though they were never within a hundred miles of the enemy, would dishonor their country and themselves by begging peace of the cut-throat invaders of our soil."

AREEST OF GEN. POLK AND GEN. HINDMAN.

From the Atlanta Register.

The Appeal of yesterday alludes to the fact that Gens. POLK and HINDMAN had arrived in this city under arrest by order of Gen. BRAGG. We were cognizant of the fact, but did not deem it necessary to allude to it. There can now be no impropriety in stating that the cause for this procedure on the part of Gen. BRAGG is said to be an alleged disobedience of orders by the two Generals named on Sunday, the second day of the battle of Chickamauga. Such is our confidence in the soldierly qualities of Gen. POLK that we believe he will be enabled to justify himself before a Court of Inquiry; but the fact that he did not bring on the battle, as ordered, three hours earlier than it began, is said to account for the alleged barrenness of the victory. It is, however, believed that Gen. POLK could not possibly have done otherwise. This is one issue, and that other more weighty one is involved in the disobedience of orders. If Sunday's fight at Chickamauga had begun, as BRAGG ordered, at daylight, nightfall would not have intervened to save ROSECRANS' beaten army, and he never could have reached and intrenched himself in Chattanooga.

The Appeal complains "that the late victory will prove but Dead Sea fruit in our hands." The arrest of the officers named may enable us to account for the alleged deplorable fact.

THE CONFEDERACY AND ENGLAND.

From the Richmond Whig.

The Palmerston Administration is a curse to Great Britain. It has alienated the Southern people, repressed their instinctive impulses toward an alliance with the English, scoffed and repulsed their Ambassador, soured their original disposition, and forced them, as it were, into the embrace of the French—a union which, at first, was less sought and less desired than a league with England. Of friends it has made enemies, or nearly so. It is answerable before Heaven for the murder of thousands on thousands of Southern men, for the pillage of myriads of Southern homes, and for the beggary, shame and outrage of numberless Southern women. Repelling the earnest and repeated entreaties of France, it has prolonged the war with its untold horrors, merely to gratify the malignant fanaticism of its Abolitionist member, Lord RUSSELL, and his insane friends of Exeter Hall. It is answerable to history and to the British people for its short-sighted and narrow-minded preference of temporary commercial advantages to a durable and immensely profitable alliance with the owners of the great storehouse of the greatest manufacturing staple known to the world.

A CURIOUS BATTLE.

From the Macon (Ga.,) Telegraph.

From a private letter of a soldier on the Rapidan, we get an account of a fight which may not figure in history among the battles of this war: Just across the river, in full view of our pickets, but at that time within the Yankee lines, is a corn field which earlier in the season abounded in choice roasting ears. From this field the men of both armies in the vicinity were wont to fill their camp-kettles by stealth; for it was a dangerous business—the field being exposed to the fire of the pickets on both sides of the field, the danger of unpleasant collisions and interruptions was much less; but gradually from day to day the hostile gleaners approached each other, until only a few rows in the centre of the field were left ungathered. But still our boys wanted the corn, and would encounter the risk. One morning two of them had crossed the river, and were cautiously foraging among these ungathered rows, when their eyes lighted upon two stalwart Hessians engaged in the same business. All were unarmed, but in an instant all straightened themselves into fighting attitude and demanded a surrender. Both squads returned a defiant answer, and both fell to, fist and skull, to enforce compliance. They "fighting fell, and falling fought," and when they fell they kicked about. They turned and twisted, and pummelled and thrashed away among the corn, till our boys began to doubt whether they had not caught Tartars. But, luckily for them, just as their wind was beginning to fail, a reinforcement came up, in the shape of another Corn-federate gatherer, and the Yanks were captured and carried in triumph over the river, prisoners of war.

THE DUTY OF FOREIGNERS.

A CORRESPONDENCE BETWEEN THE BRITISH CONSUL AT SAVANNAH AND GOV. BROWN, OF GEORGIA.

An interesting correspondence has taken place between A. FULLERTON, "Acting British Consul" at Savannah, and Gov. BROWN, of Georgia, relative to the liability of foreign subjects to bear arms in defence of the State when invaded or in case of insurrection. The "Acting Consul" writes to protest against British subjects being included in the 8000 draft made by Gov. BROWN under the call of the President, and thus explains his right to protest:—

On a former occasion Mr. MOLYNEUX advised you that the Consulate was placed under my charge during his absence. I recently submitted my authority to act as Her Majesty's Consul to Mr. BENJAMIN, who duly accorded to me his approval and recognition.

He says: "The dispatches which I have received from the British Government relative to compulsory service are strong. I am instructed to remonstrate in the strongest terms against all attempts to force British subjects to take up arms. Should these remonstrances fail, the Governments in Europe, interested in this question, will unite in making such representations as will secure to aliens this desired exemption."

After several columns of correspondence, Gov. BROWN, in reply to a request from the "Acting Consul" that two British subjects named KIELY be allowed to leave the State, says:

"By an ordinance of the Convention of this State, representing her people and her sovereignty, passed on the 16th day of March, 1861, it is declared:

'That all white persons resident in this State at the time of the secession of the State from the United States, with the bona fide intention of making it the place of their permanent abode, shall be considered as citizens of this State, without reference to their place of birth; Provided, That any person not born in this State can except him or herself from the operation of this ordinance by a declaration in any Court of Record in the State, within three months from this date, that he or she does not wish to be considered a citizen of this State.'"

The Ordinance of Secession referred to in the above quotation was passed on the 19th day of January, 1861.

If the Messrs. KIELY were resident in this State on the 19th day of January, 1861, and did not file their declaration in a Court of Record of this State within three months from the 15th day of March, 1861, that they did not wish to become citizens of this State, they accepted the privileges and obligations of citizenship offered them by the State, and ceased to be British subjects, and are consequently not entitled to the leave to quit the State, for which you ask under my letter of the 26th ult. If, however, they become residents of this State at any time since the 19th day of January, 1861, or if they were then residents, and filed their declaration, as required by the ordinance, within three months after the 13th day of March, 1861, they will be allowed the thirty days to arrange their affairs, as you request, and permitted to depart from the State at the expiration of that term.

A COMPLIMENT TO GEN. THOMAS.

A DEGENERATE SON.—The Petersburgh Express of Oct. 7, says: We regret to hear that Maj.-Gen. GEORGE H. THOMAS, who fought so obstinately under ROSECRANS, "the lousy calf," at Chickamauga, is a native of Southampton County, Va., and was born in Jerusalem, the county seat. It is said that Gen. THOMAS has relatives in the County of Southampton who are deeply grieved at the course he has pursued. He is a graduate of West Point, and is said to possess military ability of a high order. The man must have a soft place in his head, we think.

THE BALTIMORE DYNASTY.

From the Richmond Whig, Oct. 8.

We are in the third year of the reign of the Baltimore dynasty in Richmond. The list of thefts, robberies, stabbings, shootings and downright murders which appears every morning in the daily papers, does not indicate that the rule of the dynasty has been successful. We express the general conviction when we say that, if the military police of the principal city of Virginia were entrusted to a native of the State, a marked improvement in the safety and peacefulness of Richmond would soon be manifest.

THE RAID IN CENTRAL MISSOURI.

ST. LOUIS, Saturday, Oct. 10.

A small party of SHELBY's rebels came within four miles of California Station, twenty-five miles west of Jefferson City, this morning, since which time we have no tidings of them.

Col. MCKISSOCK, Superintendent of the Pacific Railroad, arrived at California, from Sedalia, this evening, and reports that the rebels burned the bridge near Oberville, the longest structure on the road west of Jefferson City, and have torn up about a mile of the track.

The depots at Tipton, Syracuse, Oberville, and all water tanks at and between these points, were all burned.

Dispatches from Jefferson City say, that SHELBY burned the town of Cole Camp, Fenton County, and Florence, Morgan County, on his way from Warsaw to the Pacific Railroad.

Gen. BROWN is in the rebel's rear, and Gen. TOTTEN is in California to-day.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Sunday, Oct. 11.

About 380 rebel prisoners, captured at McMinnville, have arrived. More are expected to-morrow. All is quiet at the front to-day. Telegraphic and railroad communication is uninterrupted.

LOUISVILLE, Saturday, Oct. 10.

Rumors, not traceable to any authenticity, prevail of the approach of FORREST's rebel cavalry to the Cumberland River, for incursions through Southern Kentucky.

NASHVILLE, Saturday, Oct. 10.

A fight, it is reported, occurred yesterday at Farmington, not Franklin. MILLER's Federal brigade was engaged and one regiment of mounted infantry, and Second Kentucky cavalry.

The Nationals overtook WHEELER's forces Thursday night near Farmington. The rebels lost heavily in killed and wounded. We captured over 300 prisoners and a battery. National loss, 29 killed: 150 wounded.

Among the killed was Col. MONROE, of the One Hundred and Twenty-third Illinois. The first train for Bridgeport since the rebel raid, left this morning. Part of WHEELER's cavalry burned the bridge at Cowan's Station, 4 miles below Dechard, Friday night. It will be restored by Monday.

No authentic reports of fighting at Chattanooga have been received to-day.

It is rumored on the street that the rebels attempted to destroy the tunnel at Raccoon Mountain, but were driven off by the Federals, after destroying part of the track in the tunnel.

Major HELVETTI, of Gen. MITCHELL's Staff, is very sick.

MONDAY, Oct. 12—A. M.

The Money writer for the Anti-Government paper in Wall-street, transfers his praise of the recent circular of Mr. A. E. SILLIMAN to his political column. The text may be a convenient one for partisan objects. As such, he is welcome to its enjoyment. And more. He can, if he likes it, make another campaign document of the speech of Mr. JAMES GALLATIN, at the Clearing House, the other day, on the same subject, when published in pamphlet form, as, we understand, it is soon to be. It may be the latter will serve the Peace party at any cost, but rumor says that this attack upon the Government was merciless. Not so "pithy" or "carefully written," in his estimation, as the other, perhaps, but more to the point, and less garnished with professions of loyalty, which, in another place, might be above praise, and pretentions to constitutional law, which in any place would be beneath criticism.

The small clique of restless Bank reformers, around the Clearing-house, of which Mr. GALLATIN may be called the head, and the Clerk of the office the tail, are not new to the public. They did some mischief to the Associated Banks in the Fall of 1857. In effect they broke them down, in their blind efforts to drive the Country Banks of New-York, and the Metropolitan and American Exchange Banks, their redeeming agents, to the wall. But immediately after they made haste to adopt the Country circulation—which they had previously refused to "recognize" at the Clearing-house—as the best means at once of restoring the whole system to uniform specie payments. A year, however, had not elapsed, before these gentlemen constituted a Board for the reform of the Currency, in Clinton Hall, to drive out the entire New-York small note circulation, and to institute a Bullion Bank. To the last measure Mr. A. E. SILLIMAN demurred. It threatened his own vault, as he now says Mr. MCCULLOCH, the Comptroller of the National Banking system, threatens his existence. He hated the Free Banking system of New-York, as he still abhors it, (according to his present writing,) and was ready to exterminate its small note circulation, but the project of a Bullion Bank in Wall-street touched him too nearly. Both schemes of "reform" fell, ignominiously, to the ground.

After the civil war was inaugurated, and a whole generation of merchants connected with the Southern trade had been either ruined or compelled to adapt their business to the cash system, thus reducing the mercantile discounts at Bank fifty ℘ cent. or more, the Government came in as a large borrower. And most opportunely for the profits of the banking system. The same clique attempted to bully the Secretary into the practical abandonment of the Sub-Treasury and the use of the fifty millions small Treasury Notes which Congress had authorized for the common convenience of the Government and the public. They did not succeed. But Mr. CHASE, on that occasion, as in every other subsequent negotiation, made the most liberal terms with the Associated Banks of the three cities. He has allowed them, first and last, in the way of discount on the long loan of 1881 and of interest made on the use of heavy balances growing out of the negotiation of 7.30 ℘ cent. Treasury Bonds and 5 ℘ cent. Treasury Notes—to the gross of two hundred millions—more than ten fold the sum of commissions paid for the distribution of nearly three hundred millions of the Popular Loan, and two hundred millions of Twelve month's Treasury Certificates, through the Loan Agency at Philadelphia and the Treasury direct. More than this: these Banks have been allowed to absorb fifty of the one hundred millions of Deposits of the U. S. Currency on interest in the Treasury, authorized by Congress, and on their Certificates he has allowed interest, at the rate of 5 ℘ cent. to run on in Gold, for eight months after the last Act of Congress, directing that all new deposits should bear interest only in Currency.

Mr. SILLIMAN says that the Banks took this mere office of loan agents at a "fearful risk." But we have seen that the public were not slow to relieve them of it. They readily subscribed to or purchased all of the two hundred millions that the Banks could be induced to part with, even at an advance of ten ℘ cent. on the long loan of 1861, and at an average advance of 5 ℘ cent. on the 7:30 loan, and have since taken five hundred millions, in other shapes, without the intermediate help of the associate Banks. And this under all phases of the progress and events of the war. The same public would to-morrow relieve the Banks of the fifty millions to be advanced on the new five-℘-cents., if the notes were ready. Mr. S. charges ingratitude on the Government because this "fearful risk" is not now recognized by an abandonment of the National Banking System. He even threatens a quo warranto, or some other fiery process against the system, as at war with the Constitution and laws of the State of New-York. While Mr. GALLATIN, from all we have heard of his phillipic of last week, threatens destruction to the Government generally, and annihilation to the Secretary of the Treasury in particular, beside excluding the new banks from the Clearing-house, as he has long excluded MORRIS KETCHUM & SON, DUNCAN SHERMAN & CO., ROBBINS & SON, WINSLOW & LANIER, and other banking firms, who receive Country Bank accounts from New-England, New-York, and the West. To be sure, these gentlemen, like the First and Second National Banks, have not applied for admission, and still live, as the National Banks will doubtless live, without complaint from the Country Banks whose drafts are drawn upon them. The matter of the Clearing-house, therefore, is one of convenience to the Associated Banks; nor of any real public concern. It can no more keep "the heart of the Currency"—whether of checks, drafts or ordinary circulation—"unscathed, at the great city centres," than it could break down the private firms referred to for competing for country bank accounts.

The present rock of offence is, that Comptroller MCCULLOCH is said to have decreed the downfall of the State banking system. One would suppose, from the tenor of Mr. SILLIMAN'S circular, and the use which is made of it in a partisan war upon the Government, that he, a mere subordinate of the Treasury, had issued a formal ukase that the Merchants' Bank and the old, so called, National Bank of Mr. JAMES GALLATIN, should no longer be. But he has done nothing of the sort. In answer to certain respectful inquiries in reference to the advantages of reorganizing the State Banks generally, East and West, under the National system, he has replied in the same spirit of courtesy, that his own opinion is, that the new is the preferable system, and points out, from the context of the law, how a transfer can be made by any of the existing Banks to this system. He makes no war upon them, and his whole offence, even as quoted by Mr. SILLIMAN, is, that he believes it requires no spirit of prophecy to foretell that the new will ultimately supercede the old system. This, we repeat, is his individual opinion. He could scarcely say less, when called upon for his views, after taking upon himself the responsibilities and emoluments of the office, which, after a searching study of the Act of Congress, he has left a comfortable home and highly commanding position as an old Banker in Indiana to accept. Had he disapproved or distrusted the National Free Banking system, he would have taken no part or lot in it. And herein he differs from Mr. SILLIMAN, who, disapproving the New-York Free Banking system, but unwilling to yield up his position and its emolument on the expiration of his old charter, reorganized and doubled the capital of the Merchants' Bank under it.

Mr. JAMES GALLATIN did the same thing, and wisely. We certainly wish no harm to this gentleman. We hope he will always be at the head of the National Bank. We have a sincere, traditional respect for the family. His honored father spent twenty of the best years of his useful life in advocating, in helping to establish and always defending, a National Bank. The very name was dear to him. He subsequently bestowed it upon his own little bank in Wall-street; to which his son succeeded, and which fortunately he will never be compelled to abandon because of the success of the new system, unless too proud to add a numeral to its designation. A National Bank was one of the instruments which brought the country out of its financial troubles after the peace of 1815. It was part and parcel of the American system. And it was an evil day for the unity of these States when both the National Banking system and Protective Tariff of 1816 were broken down in 1832–'33. The necessities of the present war have amply restored the latter, and all that Mr. MCCULLOCH has said is that he believes the same trying crisis will lead to the permanent but voluntary reëstablishment of the former.

The Foreign Trade of the past week was on a moderate scale so far as the original Import entries of Foreign Goods and Export clearances of Domestic Produce extend. But considerable withdrawals from the Bonded Warehouse of the previous importation continue to be made; the market for both Dry Goods and general Foreign Merchandise being quite active for the season. The Customs in Gold were again large, and the Export of Gold on Saturday, like the corresponding Saturday last year, and from the same cause, was heavy. This, and the Customs demand, contributed to advance the price of Gold in the absence of positive military successes. The market for Money was easy at the close of the week, and although there was a large and increasing diversion into the Popular Loan, the effect at the Treasury was to postpone the usual weekly call for $3,500,000 upon the Associated Banks on the recent negotiation.

The Stock Exchange dealings were much larger on the Share list, and also in Government Securities, than the week before, and prices generally favored the advance made at the close of that week. The difference since in Erie is about 2 ℘ cent., and on some of the new Western Roads a larger advance is marked. Other descriptions ultimately left off at about the same figures. The miscellaneous shares, like Pacific Mail, Quicksilver, Canton and Cumberland, were all higher through the week and at the close.

There was quite an excitement made in the Gold market Saturday by the unexpected shipment by the two steamers of $2,180,000 to England. The regular trade in Bullion and Exchange were as much taken by surprise as the speculators generally on the Street. A clique or combination of the latter, however, were well posted as to the cause of the extra shipment of $1,150,000, and also as to the game of suddenly advancing the market, which was to be served by it. The shipment, it appears, was made by a young house in Exchange-place, respectably connected on the other side, but whose regular business in Exchange would be called large at one-tenth the sum. Of course they are the mere Brokers of wealthier parties. The solution is that a joint speculation in Gold was made up some days ago, said to be for four or five millions, two-fifths or one-half of which was to go abroad, and the profit of the adventure to be made up on the resale of the remainder at home. Though shrewdly conceived, this manœuvre is not wholly new to the market, having been tried, but with no satisfactory result, last Spring. It may succeed better in the present instance, as there is a good demand for bills to cover the recent active sales of Foreign Goods, while the exports of Domestic Produce, other than California Gold, are moderate. With the secret of so large a shipment in their keeping, the speculators early this morning rapidly bid up Gold to 149@149¼ ℘ cent. This price was not sustained by ¾@1 ℘ cent. at the Stock Exchange Board. It subsequently fell to 147½@148 ℘ cent.; but after Bank hours the bidding was again advanced to 148¾ ℘ cent. As the rise of the morning took place after the remittances to Europe by the steamers were made up, the quotations on London were unsettled through the day.

The Stock Exchange, on Saturday, resolved to have no Second Board Saturdays, until further notice. A motion was also entered to conform the by-laws of the Board permanently to this practice. This will come up for action ten days hence. At the morning Board the Government securities were firm. The entire sales of the Popular 5-20 years Loan, at the Loan Agency and at the Treasury direct, on Friday, were about two million of dollars. Saturday's orders through, and sales by, Messrs. LIVERMORE, CLEWS & CO., Sub-Agents, amount to $500,000; FISK & HATCH, $200,000; VERMILYE & CO., $250,000, and the First National Bank $50,000. The subscriptions at the Treasury office direct are $310,000. The Share list was free from excitement, at about Friday's prices, except Cumberland Coal, which was run up to 34@35 ℘ cent. before the Board, but fell back to 32¾ at the Board, on private telegrams, manipulated as from Baltimore, of a legal decision or some other stroke of good fortune in favor of the stock. In the afternoon the rumors were renewed, and sales made up to 34@34½ ℘ cent.

At 4 o'clock on the Street the changes in Stocks from the Board sales were not important. The quotations, compared with Friday night, are:

MUSICAL.

CHICKERING & SONS,

MANUFACTURERS OF GRAND, SQUARE, AND UPRIGHT PIANO FORTES, No. 652 BROADWAY.—The superiority of these instruments has of late been amply demonstrated by the voluntary testimony of the foremost artists of the day, who claim for them excellencies of tone and workmanship hitherto unobtained by any other makers.

MR. GOTTSCHALK's constant use of the NEW SCALE CHICKERING GRAND PIANO FORTES has severely tested their musical qualities, and resulted in establishing the justice of the very flattering estimation in which they are held.

STEINWAY & SONS'

GOLD MEDAL GRAND AND SQUARE PIANOS are now considered the best in Europe as well as this country, having received the first Prize Medal at the World's Exhibition in London, 1862.

The principal reason why the Steinway Pianos are superior to all others, is, that the firm is composed of five practical pianoforte makers, (father and four sons,) who invent all their own improvements, and under whose personal supervision every part of the instrument is manufactured. Warerooms, Nos. 82 and 84 Walker-st., New-York.

RAVEN & BACON,

Manufacturers of Grand and Square Piano-fortes, Wareroom No. 135 Grand-st., near Broadway, New-York. The long experience and the many facilities we possess enable us to produce instruments unsurpassed by any other establishment. Our personal attention is given to the construction, improvement and introduction of all essential changes that may be required to make a perfect piano-forte. Purchasers are invited to call and examine our large assortment of pianos, which we are now offering on favorable terms. Descriptive circulars sent by mail.

MEMORY BELLS.

This new and beautiful song by Tucker, author of "When this Cruel War is Over," sung nightly by C. G. Lockwood, at Wood's Minstrels. Price, 30 cents. Copies sent by mail.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

THE REBELLION.

Affairs with the Army of the Potomac again commence to be exciting. For some days past the apparent concentration of a strong rebel force in the vicinity of Madison Court House had been looked on with suspicion, and on Saturday morning one of Gen. KILPATRICK'S cavalry brigades was dispatched to reconnoitre in that direction. When near Robertson's River our troopers met a large body of STUART'S cavalry, and a fight was the result. The battle raged an hour, when KILPATRICK was compelled to fall back upon his infantry supports. Another severe contest ensued, and, after a considerable number had been captured, the infantry also gave way. This ill-fortune, however, was quickly retrieved by a detachment of cavalry, who retook nearly all the prisoners, when our whole force, stubbornly contesting every foot of the way, fell back toward Culpepper. It is generally believed that the rebel movements signify an intention on the part of A. P. HILL'S corps to change from our left front to the rear of our right, in order to cut our railroad communication, and measures are in progress to frustrate the scheme. Guerrilla parties are becoming more and more audacious. On Friday night, they were as close to our lines as Bailey's Cross Roads, Fall's Church and Munson's Hill, at each of which places they committed depredations. Washington was excited with rumors on Saturday and yesterday respecting retrograde movements on the part of LEE and the advance of MEADE, but nothing definite on either point has reached us.

A dispatch from Washington assures us that no further anxiety need be felt respecting the safety of the Army of the Cumberland, because of the failure of reinforcements to reach it. It is now positively asserted that the centre of Gen. ROSECRANS' position has been made strong by the presence of fresh troops, and that both flanks of the army are now also fully protected. A private letter from Chattanooga, published in the Cincinnati Gazette, states, upon the authority of intercepted rebel correspondence, that all of Gen. JOHNSTON'S forces have been sent from Mississippi to reinforce Gen. BRAGG. On the 6th inst. Gen. MITCHELL overtook the rebel cavalry below Shelbyville and routed them; 100 were left dead on the field, besides a large number of wounded. The sacking of Shelbyville by the rebels was as disastrous to friends as to foes; it was a wanton act, and as disgraceful as that of Lawrence. BRAGG'S bombardment of Chattanooga was a farce. No injury at all was done to persons or property.

The ball is reported fairly in motion in the Department of the Gulf, and the probabilities are that Gen. BANKS will soon take the field. Preliminary scouting has been done from Brashear City, and no enemy met, they having retreated rapidly at every advance of the Federal troops. The latest news is that Gen. FRANKLIN and his forces are in possession of Bisland, unthreatened. Twelve of a roving band of depredators have been captured at Baton Rouge, among them, HUNTER, the famous "Nine Mile Bob," who has terrorized friend and foe, in that section, by murder and robbery. Our navy in the Gulf is very active, in the way of captures of blockade runners. One prize is the British steamer Sir Tom Peel, built for the Portuguese trade, at a cost of £70,000. She had on board 960 bales of cotton, worth about $260,000. Some singular facts in regard to English sympathy with the rebellion, it is thought, will be brought to light by her capture.

QUANTRELL has resumed his monstrous behavior in Kansas. The attack upon the Staff and body-guard of Gen. Blunt near Fort Scott, was made by his band of miscreants, and in this matter they fully sustained the infamous reputation which was lately achieved by them at Lawrence. Assuming the uniform of Union soldiers, three hundred of these scoundrels surprised Gen. BLUNT'S small party and captured seventy-eight of the one hundred men composing it. These prisoners were afterwards brutally murdered, all of them having been found with bullet-holes through the head. Gen. BLUNT himself escaped, and meeting reinforcements below Fort Scott, took command of them and went in pursuit of QUANTRELL.

A dispatch from Cairo, of the 9th inst., represents that Gen. LEE, of JOHNSTON'S Staff, is concentrating rebel forces near Columbus, Miss. Extensive iron-works are there, and instant protection of the place is deemed necessary by the rebels.

The rebels in Central Missouri, under COFFEE and SHELBY, are reported by a St. Louis dispatch to have interrupted telegraphic communication about thirty miles west of Jefferson City, on Friday last, having struck the Pacific Railroad at that point. Yesterday morning they had come eastward to within five miles of Tipton. It was not known whether any damage had been done to the Railroad. At Sedalia, active preparations were in progress for the defence of that post.

A sharp fight took place near Franklin, Ky., on Thursday, the 9th inst., between a cavalry brigade, under Gen. CROOK, and a portion of WHARTON'S rebel cavalry. The latter were badly beaten; 125 killed and wounded, 300 taken prisoners and four pieces of cannon captured.

A proclamation has been issued by Gov. BROWN, of Georgia, strongly protesting against the seizure of personal property for public purposes. He urges resistance to such arbitrary impressments of property as have been made.

FROM EUROPE.

The steamship City of Baltimore, from Liverpool Sept. 30, via Queenstown Oct. 1, passed Cape Race on Friday morning. The news is two days later. From the brief summary telegraphed we learn that a report was current to the effect that the mission of ALEXANDER H. STEPHENS to France was to settle upon terms with the Emperor for the recognition of the South on an emancipation basis. The London Times publishes an absurd rumor, probably based upon the representations of Ex-Senator GWIN, formerly of California, but recently of Richmond, Va., that the Golden State was desirous of seceding and joining the Mexican Empire. The delegation from Mexico were to have had an interview with MAXIMILIAN on the 3d, for the purpose of tendering him the crown which he would formally accept. The proposition is said to have been made to the other Western Powers by England to ignore Russia's title to Poland, on the ground that she had violated the treaties of 1815. The late speech of Senator SUMNER, on our Foreign Relations, had been very generally commented on by the English Press. Mr. MASON had at last left London for Paris. The latest commercial advices via Queenstown report the Liverpool Cotton market firmer, but prices unchanged. Provisions were also firm, but Breadstuffs remained quiet. Consols closed at 93⅜ for money.

GENERAL NEWS.

It is a singular fact that while not a single accident has occurred to the guns on board the Ironsides and Monitors, five of Gen. GILLMORE'S guns of the same calibre as those used by the navy, have exploded or become damaged since the siege of Charleston began. Experienced naval officers explain this by the fact that the projectiles used by the Monitors were "slushed" or greased before being rammed home.

The Russian dispatch steamer Almaz, Commander P. ZELENAG, in 37 days from Kiel, arrived yesterday. She is a screw vessel of 1,485 tons, and engines of 360 horse power. Her armament consists of 5 guns, and her crew of 182 officers and men.

A letter from Bridgton, Ala., dated Oct. 1, announces the arrival of the Thirty-third New-Jersey regiment at that point. As this regiment was in the advance of the force which left Washington some time ago to reinforce ROSECRANS, it may safely be inferred that the main detachment under Gen. HOOKER reached its destination several days ago.

Captain EDWARD F. YOUNG, of the fourth regiment heavy artillery, N. Y. S. V., has been promoted by Gov. SEYMOUR to the position of Major of that regiment, for meritorious conduct.

A little son of Gen. W. T. SHERMAN, nine years of age, died at Memphis on the 3d inst.

Breadstuffs were quite active on Saturday at decidedly higher prices, especially for the principal kinds of grain, which were freely purchased on speculation, chiefly on Western account. Provisions were generally in lively demand; Pork and Lard were dearer. Groceries were quiet. Whisky was in good request at advanced rates. Hay, Hides, Hops, Leather, Tallow, Wool and Tobacco were selling freely. A fair inquiry existed for Fruit, Herring, Laths, Lime, Oils and Seeds. Freights were inactive. There were 627 vessels of all classes in port.

The Fall Elections.

State elections take place to-morrow in Pennsylvania and Ohio. Both will be of the utmost interest and importance, as embodying the verdict of two of the largest and most powerful States in the Union upon the question of prosecuting the war until the military power of the rebel Confederacy is completely broken. The canvas in both States has been conducted with vigor and energy, and it is scarcely possible that the issue should not be distinctly and generally understood. No intelligent man can doubt that if the rebellion is to be quelled at all, it must be by force of arms. No peace can possibly be had except by giving up the Union or by beating the rebel armies. The country must take its choice between these two methods. Either of these ways will give us peace. If we concede independence to the rebels, they will stop fighting,—because they will then have gained what they are fighting for. If we destroy their armies and occupy their strong military positions, they will stop because they can't help themselves.

The Government has made its choice between these two modes. It decides on conquering a peace. It has resolved not to consent to a severance of the Union, nor to concede independence to the Southern States, nor to permit the Government to be overthrown and the Constitution destroyed. It will resist the rebels just so long as they remain in arms against the Union. And the question which Ohio and Pennsylvania decide to-morrow, is whether the people of those great States will sustain them in so doing. As always happens at every election, the most strenuous and determined efforts are made to evade the real issue. In Ohio, the opponents of the Government are running VALLANDIGHAM for Governor on the ground of his martyrdom. He was arrested by military authority without due process of law, and was not allowed to urge soldiers to desert, to stir up hostility against the Government, and to act as agent of the rebels in Ohio with impunity. In Pennsylvania, loud complaints are also made of the violation of personal rights, and of sundry other acts of the Administration. But these efforts to blind the people to the real issue will not succeed. The nature of the contest is understood, and in the main the result will be a fair index of the will of the people—quite as fair as can ever be expected in any election.

It is foolish to make predictions on the eve of events. But we have strong confidence that both these States will elect the Union candidates. The canvass has been thorough; the discussions have been full and able, and we have no doubt that the people in both States are in favor, by very large majorities, of sustaining the Government in continuing the contest with the rebels until it is crowned by a decisive Union victory. If this proves to be true, and both these States elect the Union ticket, the task of the Union party in this State will be easy. New-York will stand by their side in the same noble cause, and a victory in these three States will render foreign intervention impossible and practically end the rebellion. The language of the Richmond rebel Press for the last few weeks has left no doubt that the sole reliance of DAVIS and his confederates has been upon foreign aid and the active development of sympathy in the Northern States. All hope of the first has vanished. The last would disappear before Union triumphs in Ohio, Pennsylvania and New-York.

A PERSONAL EXPLANATION.—FERNANDO WOOD, in a letter from Washington dated the 9th, denies that he has "had any interest in or connection with any business transaction, direct or indirect, with the South for the last ten years." This denial is made in consequence of the publication of Mr. G. B. LAMAR'S letter to him proposing a partnership in a project for running the blockade—LAMAR agreeing to furnish the ship and cargo, to take charge of the whole business, to share expenses equally, and then to divide the profits, WOOD'S share in the transaction being simply to "negotiate" for "permission, tacit or written," to run the blockade—in plain English, to bribe the officers of the blockading squadron. As the letter was intercepted on its way, it of course never reached Mr. WOOD'S hands; if it had, we have no reason to doubt that he would have been quite as indignant that any gentleman with whom he "dined in 1861" should make him such a proposition, as he now is that the letter should have been "intercepted, opened and given to the newspapers." We beg to assure him, however, notwithstanding the very natural doubt which he expresses, that the letter is genuine. If it could do him or the public any particular good, and we were at liberty to do so, we should gladly satisfy his curiosity as to the manner in which the document missed its destination, and reached our hands instead of his. As it is, however, he must excuse us for not doing so.

Rebel Strategy in Tennessee and Virginia—Grounds for Caution.

The present aspect of military affairs is one which may well absorb the most earnest attention of the official managers of the war. The very fact that the rebels are really hard pressed engages them the more to make good by strategem what they have already lost by force. In the mere hard pounding of actual battle we are not afraid to put any of our armies against an equal force of theirs; but it must be acknowledged that in the ruses and wiles of war, in combinations prepared with an admirable secrecy and executed with marvelous celerity, they have always excelled. This is a moment peculiarly favorable for a new and unexpected military coup, and we have very little doubt that they are now laying a mine whose explosion will startle the country, and may do much to restore the rebel military status to the height at which it stood before our Summer successes.

The whole country is now looking toward Chattanooga as the point at which the storm of war will next burst forth. Ever since the battle in Northern Georgia, now three weeks ago, all the energies of the Government have been directed to forwarding reinforcements to Gen. ROSECRANS, that may enable him to withstand any new effort the rebels may make to dislodge him from that stronghold. It is no secret that both the armies of Gen. MEADE and of Gen. GRANT have been drawn upon to strengthen ROSECRANS, and indeed the country learned first through the Richmond papers that two corps had been sent from the Army of the Potomac into Tennessee. These heavy additions to the Army of the Cumberland have insured its ability to hold its own.

There are but two methods by which the rebels can hope to dislodge ROSECRANS from Chattanooga—by a direct attack and by a flank movement. The time has now gone by when the former can safely be attempted. It might have been possible if made by BRAGG promptly on the heels of the repulse at Chickamauga. But the intervening time has enabled the Union General so to strengthen his position artificially, and to receive such numerical additions to his strength, that prudence will rule out any rebel assault on his position. The only means left them, therefore, is to attempt a turning movement on the one or the other flank of ROSECRANS. But the geographical and strategical relations of the region in which they would have to operate give the Union commander powerful protection against such a movement, and render it extremely hazardous on the part of the rebels. ROSECRANS' right wing is strongly covered by the Lookout range, running from Chattanooga to Gadsden, Ala., over which a rebel force would have to pass by roads of which there are only three or four, all of which have been rendered impracticable. The left wing is more exposed naturally, but the whole flank is carefully observed. ROSECRANS' left connects with BURNSIDE'S right, and all the fords and mountain passes are guarded in force.

If these facts have all the weight here attributed to them, they result in reducing the rebel army before Chattanooga to the defensive. And this is precisely the fact which of all others it is most important definitely to know. For if the rebel chiefs shall have agreed that their opportunity in Tennessee has gone by—that, considering the strength of the position which the Union commander holds, and the number of troops that have been accumulated for its defence, neither a front nor flank offensive movement can be risked—and shall have assigned to BRAGG a merely defensive rôle, as is now conjectured has been done—this determination will undoubtedly alter the whole complexion of their military combinations. What shape they will assume, it is of course impossible to penetrate, except by the light which the probabilities of the greatest advantage throw on the problem. But supposing they, with the utmost secrecy and celerity, return the troops drawn from Virginia and put them once more into the hands of Gen. LEE. In the meantime the two corps sent from our Potomac army remain in Tennessee, and BRAGG makes vigorous demonstrations on the Union communications to keep ROSECRANS employed. When all is ready, LEE again advances, repeating the strategy of June last; with the Potomac army depleted as it is, what are the prospects?

We cannot pretend to say that any such movement will actually take place; but we do say that it is quite within the range of probability and of rebel precedent. We hope that we are not to interpret the audacious rebel movements in Virginia, looking toward another flank attack on MEADE, whereof the telegraph to-day gives report, as signifying that the rebels are even now putting or preparing to put into execution this design. But we repeat that there never was a time when the situation required a more wary watching on the part of the military authorities.

The Draft Vindicated—Failure of Volunteering in New-Jersey.

The argument which the Copperheads chiefly plied in their opposition to the Government draft, was its absolute uselessness. They protested with all their vehemence that the wants of the army could be easily supplied by volunteering, stimulated by reasonable bounties. It was, as they represented, simply a love of oppression and tyranny that impelled the Government to impose compulsory army service upon the free citizen. They used this pretence, as a lash of scorpions, to drive the people into phrenzy. This was the thing, as used by the demagogues of this City in the Press, on the platform, and at the street corners, which produced the terrible July riots.

New-Jersey was the favorite reference, as proof that the draft was not a necessity. Gov. PARKER had stated to President LINCOLN that his State could furnish the required quota by volunteering, and had asked the privilege of employing that method. The President, with characteristic liberality, consented that the trial should be made; and New-Jersey was left to raise its quota in its own way. It was an object, of course, for the Copperheads of that State to discredit the Government measure of conscription; and they set about the work of securing voluntary enlistments with a good deal of energy. In the larger towns of the State, by means of enormous bounties, and by drawing freely upon the superfluous population of New-York City and Philadelphia, they made considerable progress. This progress was at once cited as a demonstration that a compulsory draft was needless, and an unqualified outrage. The most was made of it.

Well, now, the time asked by Gov. PARKER has expired—in fact, long since expired—and what is the result? The result is an order from the Provost-Marshal-General that a draft shall be commenced in the State of New-Jersey next week, to secure its quota for the National armies under the President's call of last Spring. It is found that volunteering in New-Jersey has ceased almost entirely; that the enlistments have been confined mainly to the large towns, and that the quota of the State is still deficient by thousands. There stands the stubborn fact. Were these men ordinary demagogues, it would confound them. But with their amount of brass, it will not even confuse them.

If supplying State quotas by volunteering within a reasonable time is practicable anywhere at this stage of the war, it should be in New-Jersey. It is a compact and thickly populated State, abounding with large towns with a floating population, and in the immediate neighborhood of the largest cities of the country, and having an amount of wealth quite exceeding, in proportion, that of most of the other States. Thus it has a peculiar advantage in having at command the sort of population most apt to enlist, and the money wherewith to offer the largest bounties. Moreover, there was, in this case, the special stimulus of a great political advantage to be gained by the Governor and the party which undertook this method of discrediting the Government measure. Had New-Jersey effectually and promptly carried out what Gov. PARKER promised for her, it would have furnished a pretty strong reason for concluding that after all President LINCOLN was mistaken in assuming that the conscription, so-called, was a necessity. The opposition to him would have gained a more respectable argument than has ever yet been available, and would have been redeemed, in great measure, from its odious character of mere faction. If, with all these advantages and incentives, New-Jersey has failed in its attempt to raise its quota by volunteering, it is certain that this system has ceased to be a practicable one anywhere, and the wisdom of the National Enrollment Act is triumphantly established.

The truth is, that all this hostility to the conscription came, not from any dissatisfaction with it simply as a war measure, but from dissatisfaction with the war itself. Direct opposition to the war was long ago found to be unpopular and damaging; and the study has ever since been how to force a conclusion to the war by indirect means. It was obvious that nothing could be more effective to this end than a prevention of any new supply of the army. Therefore, primarily, a most strenuous resistance was made against the employment of the freedmen of the South as soldiers. Every abusive term in the vocabulary was cast against the Government for availing itself of this source of supply. Then similar opposition was shown to the enlisting of Northern blacks. Every wretched prejudice was stirred up against this class of our population, and with such effect that it is doubtful whether a colored regiment, even at this day, could pass through our streets on their way to the theatre of war, without drawing upon themselves the fury of a mob. Gov. SEYMOUR himself, in his official capacity, repelled an application by a delegation of colored men to aid in the organization of a colored regiment for active service. The National enrollment measure, or what is usually termed the Conscription bill, was in the beginning denounced as unconstitutional. The most was made of that pretext, until it was discovered that it had no chance with the Courts. Then the resistance of the people was invoked against the measure, as being a gratuitous and intolerable oppression of the poor man. This pretence was pressed with unbounded impudence, and at last brought on the New-York riots. Those riots it was hoped would deter the Government from any further attempt to carry out the act. Gov. SEYMOUR did his best to convince the Government that persistence in enforcing the law would be ruinous. But the Government did persist. There was then no alternative, but the habeas corpus dodge, whereby any petty Justice should discharge conscripts, or arrested deserters, at his pleasure, on a quibble. But an end was soon made of this by the President's proclamation suspending the writ, as far as regards all persons amenable to military law, in accordance with authority given him by act of Congress, under the Constitution. All methods of resistance have thus been exhausted. The purpose throughout has been to keep down the strength of the army, and compel an abandonment of the war. It has all been in vain. The army has been largely reinforced, the war is moving steadily and surely to its triumphant consummation, and Copperheadism is sinking into an abyss of infamy.

Amusements.

The rentrée of Miss KELLOGG on Friday night in VERDI'S charming Opera of "Rigoletto," was certainly the leading event of Mr. MARETZEK'S opening week at the Academy of Music. "Roberto Devereux" was not a success, and the second performance was received as tamely as the first. This result is attributable mainly to Signor BELLINI, who has the misfortune to be always sick when any special effort is expected at his hands. The rôle which he had to abandon on Wednesday night is one of the strong features of the opera, and would have displayed his grand voice to the greatest perfection. As it was the public yawned, felt disappointed, and went home grumbling about DONIZETTI, forgetting that it was the singer, and not the composer, who was at fault. On Wednesday the "house" was neither so full nor so brilliant as on the opening night. Both occasions were eclipsed on Friday, when Miss KELLOGG returned to our stage, and achieved what she is always entitled to, a genuine artistic success. Her performance of the difficult rôle of the heroine was characterized by the most graceful perception of its dramatic opportunities, and by a complete and thorough interpretation of the music. We were glad to remark that the lady's voice was stronger and more manageable than we ever remember to have heard it. The protracted bronchial trouble which prevented her singing last season has happily terminated without ill consequences, and the long rest which it has necessitated seems indeed to have been of positive benefit to her. The opera was excellently rendered by the company. Signor MAZZOLENI sang superbly, and brought down a torrent of applause in an introduced romanza from "I Lombardi," (La mia Letizia.) Signor BARILI sustained the part of the Jester with a great deal of dramatic ability, and Mlle. SULZER, although her voice lacks color, sang the contralto part very well. The orchestra and chorus were thoroughly good; indeed the performance was all that could be desired or expected of the forces now at the Academy, and will, we hope, be repeated. To-night VERDI'S "Ernani" will be produced. This opera was given, it will be remembered, with immense effect last season.

Flattering accounts of the reception of Mr. ANSCHUTZ'S German opera come to us from Baltimore. The initial performance attracted an enormous crowd, and seems to have passed off very successfully. The German critics of the Monumental City came out strong on the occasion, and seem to be of the opinion that there is now nothing but the deluge left worth speaking about.

The opening of the Olympic seems to have pleased and disappointed every one. Of the theatre there is but one opinion—it is thoroughly charming; of the pieces, it is generally conceded that they were unequal to the occasion. We are glad to hear that a local burlesque is in preparation. It is in such works that Mrs. JOHN WOOD is seen to the greatest advantage. Additions will, we suppose, be made to the company now that its deficiencies are apparent. In the meantime, we will direct attention to an excellent point in the management of the front of the house; this is in keeping the aisles open so that free access can be had to the reserved seats during any part of the performance. At other theatres it is customary to fill up these aisles, and so establish an effectual blockade—much more difficult to run than the one at Charleston. Apart from the inconvenience of this arrangement, there is real danger in thus obstructing the natural vomitories of the building. In case of fire it would be physically impossible for the audience to make its escape. In view of a calamity that might so easily occur, it is surely the duty of the authorities to prohibit the filling of the aisles, and to insist that they shall be kept open, as at Mrs. JOHN WOOD'S "Olympic." That lady is entitled to much credit for setting a good example. May the other managers follow it.

The friends and pupils of the late HERMAN A. WOLLENHAUPT will be glad to hear that a grand memorial concert to that esteemed musician will take place at Irving Hall, on the 29th of October. The affair is in the hands of a competent Committee, and there is no doubt that it will result in a substantial testimonial of the regard in which Mr. WOLLENHAUPT was held by the public and the profession.

Miss KIMBERLEY will read SHAKESPEARE'S "Midsummer Night's Dream," at Irving Hall, on Tuesday evening, the 25th inst. The whole of MENDELSSOHN'S music will be performed, under the direction of Mr. THEODORE THOMAS.

Mr. ROBERT STOEPEL'S "Hiawatha" will shortly be revived at Irving Hall. Miss MATILDA HERON will recite the poem; the choruses will be rendered by the "Singacademie," and the solos by Messrs. CASTLE, CAMPBELL and Mrs. MOTT.

The Gottschalk concerts commence at the same establishment on Monday next, the 19th. The manager, Mr. MAX STRAKOSCH, has had the good fortune to engage Signor BRIGNOLI, who will appear at all these entertainments. That excellent tenor will receive a warm welcome on his return to the City. We hear, with much pleasure, that he is likely to appear in opera at the Academy of Music.

The announcements at the various places of amusement to-night are as follows: At Mr. WALLACK'S theatre, the new and highly successful drama called "Rosedale;" at the Olympic, the burletta called "Brother and Sister" and the comedietta called "Married Daughters;" at the Winter Garden Mr. EDWIN BOOTH in the play of "Ruy Blas," first time in New-York. (It was in this play that Mr. FECHTER made his greatest hit, and the leading rôle will, we are sure, find an adequate representative in Mr. BOOTH.) At Niblo's, Mr. FORREST as the Gladiator; at the Park Theatre, (Brooklyn,) the comic opera of "John of Paris;" at Barnum's Museum, the ghost-piece called "Edric the Dane," and at the Alhambra Pavilion, Fourteenth-street, a splendid equestrian performance, and the first appearance of Mme. MARIE MACARTE.

Mr. STEPHEN MASSETT (Jeemes Pipes, of Pipesville,) is about starting on his lecturing tour, having prepared a humorous and diverting monologue entitled, "Drifting About," embracing, among other graphic sketches, his well-known comic imitations of celebrities here and abroad.

PENNSYLVANIA POLITICS.

Grand Union Demonstration in Philadelphia—The Election.

PHILADELPHIA, Sunday, Oct. 11.

The Union demonstration in this city last evening was the grandest and most imposing affair of the kind I have ever seen. A procession met Gov. CURTIN in the afternoon and escorted him to the Continental Hotel, and in the evening there was an immense meeting on Independence Square, numbering certainly not less than 15,000 or 20,000, over which Mayor HENRY presided, and which was addressed in brief speeches by Gen. BUSTEED, H. J. RAYMOND, Mr. MATHEWS, and several others. After this a magnificent torchlight procession marched through the city, attended by numerous bands of music and its pathway illuminated by brilliant displays of fireworks. At least forty or fifty thousand persons must have participated in this splendid demonstration of the Union men of Philadelphia.

The canvass in this city, as well as throughout the State, has been exceedingly animated and vigorous. The public meetings in all sections have been very large and very enthusiastic. Gov. CURTIN has canvassed the whole State very thoroughly, and the State Central Committee, of which M. McVEAGH, Esq., is Chairman, and Dr. F. TAYLOR Secretary, has labored with great spirit and unflagging industry in securing a perfect and effective organization of the Union men. The signs of the times are promising, and we all hope for the best results.

NEWS FROM WASHINGTON.

OUR SPECIAL WASHINGTON DISPATCHES.

WASHINGTON, Sunday, Oct. 11.

Rumors again fly thick and fast regarding retrograde movements of LEE'S army, and advance movements of MEADE'S army. Of the first, nothing definite is known, and of the last, nothing definite can be said.

GOLD ACCUMULATING.

Gold is accumulating rapidly in the Treasury, and will be kept there until specie payments are resumed, except at the recurring periods of the payment of interest on the public debts.

AFFAIRS OF LEE'S ARMY.

Thursday's deserters from LEE'S army report that only two divisions of LONGSTREET'S corps were sent to BRAGG—PICKETT'S division, which was so badly used up at Gettysburgh, being left behind. None of A. P. HILL'S men were sent. One division of EWELL'S corps was first sent to Charleston, and subsequently to BRAGG, thus leaving in front of the Army of the Potomac about 40,000 men, or two corps. The commanding General's headquarters were at Orange Courthouse on Friday, but LEE has lately spent a large portion of his time at Richmond.

THE GUROWSKI-HUNTER LIBEL IN COURT.

The day of grace generously accorded by the Court, to District-Attorney CARRINGTON, to fasten upon Count GUROWSKI the authorship and publication of the alleged libel against Chief Clerk HUNTER, of the State Department, was wasted. The prosecution, vastly to its astonishment, was brought flat upon its knees, by the refusal of Judge CARTER to let the "Diary," containing the libel, be read to the Jury, on manifestly the utterly immaterial testimony (which only had been adduced;) first, that the Count GUROWSKI'S name was printed on the title-page of the book; second, that the Count had once been a clerk in the State Department; third, that the Count had lived in Washington; fourth, that the Count had shown two different book-binders loose and unarranged proof-sheets of what he called a "Diary," which he wished to have bound consecutively. The District-Attorney then, with a rhetorical effusion of innocent generosity, informed the Court that he should enter a nolle prosequi. The Court, to the astonishment of the District-Attorney, but the amusement of the audience and bar, informed that prosecuting but not persecuting officer, that he could not do any such thing, but must take a verdict! "Not guilty," said the Foreman, with a smile. "So say you all?" inquired the Clerk; and the affirmative nod of each was decorous with the effort to suppress laughter.

A COMMAND FOR GEN. SICKLES.

A command has been given to Gen. SICKLES, both civil and military in its character.

THE NATIONAL CANAL CONVENTION.

The Committee to present the memorial of the National Canal Convention to the President, and request him to communicate the same to Congress, are: Hon. J. N. Arnold, of Illinois; Hon. H. B. Dawes, of Massachusetts; Hon. J. S. Morrell, of Vermont; Hon. James A. McDougall, of California, and R. B. Hill, of Iowa. The important document in charge of these gentlemen was informally presented to Mr. LINCOLN to-day. Modifications of the memorial were made by the Committee before their interview with the President. The document thus amended will be presented as soon as printed.

APPOINTMENT OF CONSULTING ENGINEER.

Gen. CHARLES B. STUART, of New-York, lately Colonel of Engineers in the Army of the Potomac, and formerly State Engineer of New-York and Engineer-in-Chief of the United States navy, has been appointed by the President (in pursuance with the resolutions of the Legislature of New-York of April, 1863,) to consult with the Engineers appointed by the Canal Board, in respect to the surveys for the enlargement of the State Canals between the Hudson and the Lakes, and as to the mode of constructing these works, so as most effectually to promote the National interest.

THE MEDICAL INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE.

The Commission to investigate the affairs of the Medical Department is still in session at Philadelphia, engaged in sifting the blanket contract, as also the general management of the Medical Purveyor's Department in that city. One of the members of the Board has been sent to St. Louis to investigate matters there. The present prospect is, that the developments will not be of the astounding character first promised.

MINERAL WEALTH OF COLORADO TERRITORY.

Returns received at the General Land Office from Colorado indicate extensive discoveries of coal, and also of the useful and precious metals in that Territory.

CHAPLAINS NOT TO BE HELD AS PRISONERS.

Gen. MEREDITH has succeeded in effecting the release of all the Chaplains of the Union army now held as prisoners of war by the rebels. In return, our Government has released all rebel Chaplains. About 25 were sent to City Point a few days ago. This policy, it is understood, will be carried out in the future, and chaplains will not be held as prisoners of war.

THE INVALID CORPS.

By the 1st of November the Invalid corps will number 12,000 men. They will fill the places of 10,000 men who are being sent to their respective regiments in the field.

THE NUMBER OF DESERTERS ARRESTED.

During the month of September 7,140 deserters were arrested, so far as known. When the reports of all the Deputy Provost-Marshals are in, this number, it is estimated, will be swelled to near 9,000 men.

THE INTEREST OF THE FIVE-TWENTIES.

The Herald's statement that Secretary CHASE will anticipate the November interest on the Five-Twenties is erroneous. He will not pay it until it falls due, and will then pay in gold, of course. The amount will be over $6,000,000.

INTERNAL REVENUE RECEIPTS.

The receipts from Internal Revenue for the week ending Saturday, Oct. 10, were $2,146,000.

Terrible Accident.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Saturday, Oct. 10.

A drawbridge across the Wabash gave way to-day, precipitating a drove of cattle, two teams and several persons into the river. Eight persons are known to be drowned. Some escaped by clinging to the swimming cattle.

The Fisheries.

CAPE RACE, Friday, Oct. 9.

The steamer Bloodhound has arrived at St. Johns from Labrador. She brings a good account of the fisheries.

THE BANQUET THIS EVENING.—The citizens' banquet this evening, in honor of the Russian Admiral and the officers of his fleet, will be a fine affair, the most liberal and elegant arrangements having been made. It will be a pleasant appetiser, socially and otherwise, to our distinguished guests for the grand municipal banquet to which they are soon to be invited.

BARNUM'S LECTURE.—To-morrow evening Mr. BARNUM will deliver his lecture on the "Art of Money-making," at the Atheneum, Brooklyn, in aid of the Atheneum Benevolent Society. It is a mixture of the humorous, practical, odd, eccentric, and has made as much of the repute of the great showman, probably, as did Joyce Heth, the woolly horse, or aught else of the wonders he has trotted out.

☞ Dr. COLTON gives a lecture, with illustrations, on "Laughing Gas," to-morrow evening, at the Cooper Institute. His meetings of this sort have always been entertaining and popular.

☞ Mr. FIELD, the Purser of the steamship Evening Star, from New-Orleans, will please accept our thanks for favors.

The Draft in the First Congressional District.

This District Headquarters, Jamaica, L. I., embracing much the largest extent of country of any in the State, includes the Counties of Richmond, Suffolk and Queens, being with exception of the small territory of Kings County, the map of Long Island and Staten Island entire.

Within the same space of time occupied in completing the enrollment lists of one or two of our populous Wards in this City, this large District has been canvassed, its enrollment completed, names drawn, and the majority of applications for exemption have been examined into for the Counties of Richmond and Suffolk.

To give the public some idea of the immense pressure of business upon this office we subjoin the following figures:

Names enrolled in Richmond County	2,185
Names enrolled in Suffolk County	4,025
Names enrolled in Queens County	5,702
Total	11,912
Names drawn, (including 50 per cent.,) Richmond County	594
Names drawn, (including 50 per cent.,) Suffolk County	1,120
Names drawn (including 50 per cent.,) Queens County	1,603
Total	3,317

Richmond County—Aliens, 74; not reported, 151; furnished substitutes, 10; exempt for physical disability, 94; exempt for other causes, 103; exempt by reason of paying commutation of $300, 162. Total, 594.

Suffolk County.—Number names drafted, 1,120; number examined to date, 921; number held for service, 6; number exempt by paying commutation, 307; number exempt from physical disability, 282; number exempt on account of alienage, 35; number exempt from other causes, 189; number exempt furnished substitutes, 14; number examined to report in 10 days, 86; yet to report, 191—Total, 1,120.

The Board of Enrollment have now been in session since Sept. 14, from 9 A. M. till 5 P. M., at Jamaica, L. I. The average of examinations has been about 100 daily, besides swearing in substitutes, receiving commutation certificates, examining applications for transfer to Invalid Corps, arresting deserters, and attending to the multitudinous duties pertaining to a Board whose jurisdiction covers so large a territory. The amount of money, or its representative values, that has passed through this office since the organization of the Board, Sept. 14, is over $150,000. Besides this vast amount of office business, the Commissary and Quartermaster's Department, under the immediate superintendence of Deputy Provost-Marshal for Queens County, James A. Fleury, Esq., are connected with the other duties, which add not a little to the work to be performed; and, to conclude, the transportation of drafted men to and from their residences if exempt, or to general rendezvous if held for service.

This Board of Enrollment certainly deserves great credit for the efficient manner in which they have discharged their onerous duties, while the figures given above compare favorably with any other District in the State.

The President of the Board, Col. Edwin Rose, of Bridgehampton, Suffolk County, is a graduate of the West Point Military Academy, of the Class of 1830, where he graduated with honor, being the thirteenth of his class. Among his cotemporaries were Lieut.-Gen. Robert E. Lee, present commander of the rebel forces in Virginia, Jeff. Davis, rebel Gen. Huger, Gen. Rufus King, Corps Commander under Gen. Meade, and others.

In 1830 he was appointed Lieutenant, Third artillery, U. S. A.; was under Gen. Scott at Fort Moultrie, Charleston Harbor, in 1832; belonged to Gen. Dade's regiment, whose massacre by the Florida Indians was the cause which led to the extermination of the Indians and the subsequent reclamation of all the State. In 1835 he participated in the Black Hawk War, under Gen. Scott, on the Mississippi, and was in at the capture of that renowned Indian warrior, Black Hawk. In 1837 he was detailed as Topographical Engineer, Michigan Territory, but in 1839 resigned the service. In September, 1861, he organized the Eighty-first regiment New-York Volunteers, at Oswego; was stationed at Fort Ontario till January, 1862, when he again took the field, serving under Gen. McClellan during the Peninsula campaign. After the seven-days' fight, ending in the change of base to Harrison's Landing, he resigned the volunteer service and accepted the appointment of Provost-Marshal of the First Congressional District, with the rank of Captain of cavalry.

W. Sidney McCoun, Esq., of Oyster Bay, Queens County—a lawyer of eminence in his profession, a gentleman universally respected for his energy of character and business talents—was appointed by the War Department, in April last, as United States Commissioner of the Board of Enrollment, and acts in that capacity at present.

There have been three Surgeons appointed to this Board—Dr. John Ordronaux, who resigned because of his appointment on the United States Sanitary Commission; Dr. Richardson, of Richmond County, who was superseded by the appointment of the present Examining Surgeon, Dr. Philemon F. Prior, of Oyster Bay, who has professionally examined all cases coming before the Board, without calling in any auxiliary surgical aid; and, with the exception of an additional clerk or two, the regular force of assistants has not been increased.

The Guard at the Provost-Marshal's Headquarters consists of the Fifteenth company of the First battalion Invalid corps, under command of Capt. G. W. Dutton, formerly Major of the Ninth Massachusetts Volunteers, and Lieut. Samuel Johnson, whose assistance with his company in suppressing the riots in this City in July last secured the honorable mention of the authorities.

Mozart and Tammany.

The General Conference Committees of Mozart and Tammany meet to-day to hear the report of their Sub-Committees, who have had in hand the matter of arranging a division of the spoils, and thus perfecting a union. It is believed that the Sub-Committees will report satisfactorily.

A portion of Mozart kicks against the arrangements made as to nominations. A call for a meeting of the General Committee at Mozart Hall to-morrow night appears signed by twenty of such Committee. Its purpose is to take into consideration the action of the "close corporation" which, it is charged, rules out the General Committee, the National Democratic party and the conservative Union men of the City and County, so far as any voice in nominations are concerned.

GENERAL CITY NEWS.

One Hundred Years Old.—The friends of Messrs. John Trimble and Jacob Valentine, on Friday evening, were guests at the residence of the latter, No. 115 East Twelfth-street. The occasion was a most interesting one, being the one hundredth birthday of Mrs. Huldah Wood, the grandmother of Mrs. Valentine and Mr. Trimble. The venerable lady is in the possession of her faculties, has never worn glasses in her life, enjoys good health and persists in devoting herself to a portion of household duties. She has lived to see six generations of her family, and has a remarkable remembrance of the early as also of the later scenes and incidents of her life. Surrounded by care and tenderly watched, the pleasant probabilities are that a number of years yet remain to her.

A Foundling Case at Lovejoy's Hotel.—Two parties giving their names as John Andrews and lady, of Philadelphia, put up at Lovejoy's Hotel on Saturday night and engaged room No. 73. In the morning it was observed that the room had not been occupied during the night, but a child, seemingly four weeks old, was found in the bed. It was given over to the hands of the police and was brought to the Tombs yesterday morning, where it was duly christened after Justice Dowling, and then consigned to the care of the Commissioners of Charities and Correction. The following note was found on the table in the room:

> "Friendless and penniless. Nothing else can I do. 'Tis hard, but O, that the little innocent, born in wedlock, (its father slain in battle,) may find a good home. Be kind and pity."

Drowned.—Coroner Wildey yesterday held an inquest on the body of Eugene M. Hays, late a Sergeant in the Ninth New-Jersey Volunteers, who was found on Saturday, floating in the water, at the foot of Barclay-street, N. R. In the pocket of deceased was found a furlough, signed by Lieut.-Col. Clark, of the above regiment, extending from Sept. 23 to Oct. 23. Deceased was a printer, and formerly employed in this office. He enlisted on the 18th of September, 1861. Coroner Wildey telegraphed to his friends, in New-Brunswick, acquainting them with the sad occurrence.

BROOKLYN NEWS.

Kings County Politics.—The Democratic primary meetings are to be held this evening, at which time Ward officers will also be nominated wherever they can be agreed upon. The City Convention will meet on Tuesday afternoon, for the purpose of nominating candidates for Mayor, Street Commissioner and Justice for the Fifth District. Benjamin Prince and Martin Kalbfleisch, the present incumbent, are the only contestants for the Mayoralty nomination, and the chances thus far appear about even. It is barely possible that both will be thrown overboard, and a new man taken up. Should Mr. Prince be nominated, it appears to be Mr. Kalbfleisch's determination to run in opposition. In that event he will receive the support of the War Democrats and the Republicans, who are indisposed to make a nomination should such a result ensue. The County Convention will meet on Wednesday. The contest will be on the County Judgeship. Hon. Samuel Garrison, James Troy and Supervisor Bloom are the candidates. The Assembly Conventions will meet the day following. The Republican Union Assembly Conventions have nominated Cornelius McArdle for the Fourth District, Joseph R. Thompson for the Sixth District, and Jacob Worth for the Seventh District. The remaining nominations will be made during the week.

Charged with Murder.—Officers Welsh and Nesbitt, of the Harbor Police, yesterday arrested a man named Geo. Higgins, better known as "Baity Higgins," on board the bark Kate, lying at Quarantine and bound to Liverpool. He is notorious for his brutality toward seamen, and is charged with the murder of two sailors on board the ship London, about two years ago, while on a voyage from London to this port. He was locked up in the First Precinct Station-house.

Arrivals in the City.

Gen. B. F. Bruce, Lenox; Hon. E. B. Morgan, Aurora; Col. D. Salomon, Philadelphia; Mayor Wm. G. Fargo, Buffalo; Capt. J. R. Goldsborough, A. D. Brown and H. P. Cook, U. S. Navy; Maj. Chas. E. Clark, Port Hudson; Capt. C. S. Lyon, U. S. Army, and J. V. Robbins, Chicago, are at the Astor House.

Hon. Edmund Rice, Minnesota; Col. Hamlin, son of the Vice-President; Col. W. T. C. Grover, Brooklyn; R. Buckles, Kentucky; J. Clark, Albany; G. R. Wilson, Buffalo, and S. A. Willoughby, New-York, are at the St. Nicholas Hotel.

The major portion of the gentlemen constituting the Baltimore Delegation left the Metropolitan Hotel last evening for Baltimore. Those who remained will not return home until this evening.

AGAIN NEW TESTIMONY.

READ.

HARLEM, July 30, 1863.

I have been deaf for over TWENTY-FIVE YEARS, and Dr. VON EISENBERG operated on both of my ears without the slightest pain—a thing that I could not believe could be done. I now hear well, and feel as I never felt for the last twenty years. The dexterity and skill with which the operation was performed evince the highest practical ability. I hear perfectly. It is now over a month since the operation, and I continue to feel as well as ever.

CATARRH CURED.

NEW-YORK, Aug. 23, 1863.

I have been suffering for the last three years from a severe Catarrh, with a continual dullness in my head, a tightness across my chest, a weight over my eyes, which were weak, watery and very painful. My nostrils were continually obstructed with a pouring of fluid. I have had frequent sneezing, hoarseness of my voice, generally attended with spitting, often with a fullness of my throat, together with a soreness and a dropping. Dr. VON EISENBERG has cured me of all these disagreeable sufferings. I now feel a new life. The treatment of Dr. VON EISENBERG is as skillful as it is successful; it is impossible to overrate the benefit I have received at his hands. I heartily recommend any one suffering like myself to place themselves under Dr. VON EISENBERG's care, with a certainty of being speedily cured. I give this with gratitude and pleasure. I cannot forbear again saying that my voice, which was hoarse and thick when I applied to Dr. VON EISENBERG, is now clear and good; indeed, I feel abundantly satisfied.

JAMES LITTLE,
No. 245 7th-st., New-York.

NEW-YORK, Sept. 8.

I have been suffering for years past from a severe Catarrh, with a great heaviness over my eyes, with a severe depression, great uneasiness, and pain in my head, great difficulty in breathing, and a continual accumulation in my nostrils, which gave me restless nights for several years. I have consulted several physicians, who pronounced me to be consumptive. What I suffered for so long a time is indescribable. My system was entirely disarranged and greatly debilitated. I not only felt weak, but I had a cloud continually before my eyes, and my ears were so affected that I was threatened with a total loss of hearing. I must say, I think, I was guided by Providence to come to Dr Von Eisenberg, who not only cured me of my Catarrh by removing an astonishing quantity of disagreeable matter from my head, but he restored me to perfect health, a blessing I have not enjoyed for many years. Now I enjoy a good night's rest, and pursue my business with comfort. I must acknowledge that Dr. Von Eisenberg's mild and scientific treatment for Catarrh deserves the highest commendation, as the principle which directs his system of curing Catarrh is such as to render success certain.

JAMES FURLONG, No. 556 2d-av.

No. 134 ALLEN-ST., NEW-YORK, Feb. 9, 1863.

I have been completely deaf in one ear, and partially so in the other, for above seventeen years, with a disagreeable discharge from both ears, combined with continual rumbling noise in the head, for which I have been treated by a most eminent practitioner in the City without the slightest relief.

I consulted Dr. Von Eisenberg, but I must candidly say that I had no faith in his success when I did so. It is, therefore, due to Dr. Von Eisenberg to acknowledge that I am entirely cured; also, that he displayed that skill and knowledge which have procured for him such an unrivaled reputation. As I have had an opportunity of comparing his mode of treatment with that of others, I can truly state that it is not only superior, but the principles which direct his mode of restoring the hearing are, in my opinion, certain. JOHN TAYLOR.

NEW-YORK, July 19, 1862.

This certifies that my mother has been for some time afflicted with partial deafness, suffering from pain, and rumbling noises in the head, together with other indications of a total loss of hearing. Dr. Von Eisenberg removed from her ears a great quantity of matter, together with coagulated blood, relieving her instantaneously, and all without pain. It is with grateful thanks that I give this testimony to his skill.

CARROLL J. POST, No. 29 South-st.

SIGHT RESTORED.

JUNE 25, 1863.

My daughter brought me to Dr. VON EISENBERG almost completely blind in both eyes. I could not bear the pain nor the light. I am completely cured by Dr. VON EISENBERG, and called now to express my gratitude to the Doctor for his skill and unremitting attention, by which I recovered one of the most precious senses to me after being deprived of it for four years. It is only due to Dr. VON EISENBERG to state that I have tried several physicians in vain. I shall be happy to bear personal testimony to Dr. VON EISENBERG's unrivaled success to any lady or gentleman who will call on me.

CHRONIC CATARRH CURED.
READ.

NEW-YORK, March 20, 1863.

"This is to certify, that I have suffered from very severe CHRONIC CATARRH, with a dull heaviness in the head. I felt my nose completely stopped up accompanied by continual soreness of the throat, the chills stealing over me with occasional hot flushes, a great tightness of the chest and pain, so much so, that every one thought it was consumption. Having heard of the great cures performed by Dr. Von Eisenberg, I consulted him with but little hope of a cure. I am now happy to be enabled to add my testimonial to the great number already in the Doctor's possession, as to his scientific and successful mode of treatment, as he has shown in my case that skill and knowledge which have procured for him so great a reputation. I am so entirely restored to perfect health that I do most sincerely recommend all sufferers from CHRONIC CATARRH and SORE THROAT to apply at once to Dr. Von Eisenberg with a certainty of being cured."

DR. VON EISENBERG'S OFFICE
NO. 816 BROADWAY, NEW-YORK.

From the army hospital—the bloody battle field—the mansion of the rich and humble abode of the poor—from the office and the sacred desk—from the mountain top, distant valleys and far-off islands of the ocean—from every nook and corner of the civilized world—is pouring in the evidence of the astonishing effects of DRAKE'S PLANTATION BITTERS. Thousands upon thousands of letters like the following may be seen at our office.

REEDSBURY, Wis., Sept. 16, 1863.

* * * * I have been in the army hospitals fourteen months—speechless and nearly dead. At Alton, Ill., they gave me a bottle of Plantation Bitters. * * * Three bottles restored my speech and cured me. * * *

C. H. FLAUTE.

SOUTH WARSAW, Ohio, July 28, 1863.

* * * One young man, who had been sick and not out of the house for two years with Scrofula and Erysipelas, after paying the doctors over $150 without benefit, has been cured by ten bottles of your Bitters. * * *

EDWARD WOUNALL.

The following is from the Manager of the Union Home School for the Children of Volunteers:

HAVEMEYER MANSION, 57TH-ST.,
NEW-YORK, Aug. 2, 1863.

DR. DRAKE: Your wonderful Plantation Bitters have been given to some of our little children suffering from weakness and weak lungs with most happy effect. One little girl, in particular, with pains in the head, loss of appetite, and daily wasting consumption, on whom all medical skill had been exhausted, has been entirely restored. We commenced with but a teaspoonful of Bitters a day. Her appetite increased; strength and health followed. * * *

Respectfully, MRS. O. M. DEVOE.

* * * I owe much to you, for I verily believe the Plantation Bitters have saved my life.

Rev. W. H. WAGGONER, Madrid, N. Y.

* * * Thou wilt send me two bottles more of thy Plantation Bitters. My wife has been greatly benefited by their use. Thy friend.

ASA CURRIN, Philadelphia, Penn.

* * * I have been a great sufferer from Dyspepsia, and had to abandon preaching. * * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me.

Rev. J. S. CATHORN, Rochester, N. Y.

* * * Send us twenty-four dozen more of your Plantation Bitters, the popularity of which are daily increasing with the guests of our house.

SYKES, CHADWICK & CO.,
Proprietors of Willard's Hotel, Washington, D. C.

* * * I have given the Plantation Bitters to hundreds of our disabled soldiers with the most astonishing effect. G. W. D. ANDREWS, Superintendent Soldiers' Home, Cincinnati, Ohio.

* * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me of liver complaint, of which I was laid up prostrate and had to abandon my business.

H. B. KINGSLEY, Cleveland, Ohio.

* * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me of a derangement of the kidneys and urinary organs that has distressed me for years. It acts like a charm.

C. C. MOORE,
Agent for Colgate & Co., No. 254 Broadway.
&c., &c., &c., &c., &c. &c.

The Plantation Bitters make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya Bark, Wintergreen, Sassafras, Roots, Herbs, &c., all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix Rum.

S. T.—1860.—X.

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try them.

They are recommended by the highest medical authorities, and are warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure and harmless.

NOTICE.—Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters in bulk or by the gallon, is a swindler and imposter. We only put it up in our log-cabin bottles. Beware of bottles refilled with imitation deleterious stuff, for which several persons are already in prison. See that every bottle has our United States Stamp over the cork, and signature on steel plate side labels.

Sold by respectable dealers throughout the habitable globe. P. H. DRAKE & CO.,

CASE OF ROSCOE K. WATSON.
SING SING, June 23, 1863.
Dr. B. Brandreth, New-York:

SIR: I was a private in Company F, Seventeenth New-York Volunteers. While at Harrison's Landing and on the Rappahannock, near Falmouth, I and many of the company were sick with bilious diarrhœa. The army surgeon did not cure us, and I was reduced to skin and bone. Among the company were quite a number of members who had worked in your laboratory at Sing Sing. They were not sick, because they used Brandreth's Pills. These men prevailed upon me and others to use the pills, and we were all cured in from two to five days. After this our boys used Brandreth's Pills for the typhus fever, colds and rheumatism, and in no case did they fail to restore health.

Out of gratitude to you for my good health, I send you this letter, which, if necessary, the entire company would sign.

I am, respectfully, yours, ROSCOE K. WATSON.

TROPICAL BALSAM.

Prepared by CARRENO, BROS. & CO., an infallible remedy, composed of salutiferous and purifying vegetables, which give it the condition of harmlessness, and used for many years past in some of the Antilles and South American countries, always with admirable success, for the cure of phthisis and other diseases of the chest, affections resulting from falls, blows or bruises, hemorrhages, wounds, contusions, ulcers, burns, headache and several other diseases. According to the case, it is to be used either internally or externally.

Heads of families are advised to keep always this Balsam by them, in order to use it in time; also, those who are devoted to such occupations as subject them to danger or require the use of instruments wherewith they may be injured.

The Balsam can be also made use of externally, with success, for the cure of horses and other animals.

Bottles containing a half ounce, 37 cents; bottles containing 1½ ounces, $1 each. A liberal discount allowed to wholesale dealers.

A NEW ASPIRANT FOR FAVOR!
PIQUE,
A FINE ENGLISH NOVEL.
One thick 12mo Volume. Price $1 50.

Those who have had the pleasure of reading this novel, speak of it in the most enthusiastic terms, and predict for it a brilliant run.

A lady of rare culture, whose opinion of a new book has great weight, says: "You may safely place PIQUE before the reading public, assured of its success, as it has the merit of being amusing, pleasantly written, and engrossing. The characters being high-bred men and women, are charming companions for an hour's solitude, and one puts the book aside regretfully, even as one closes the eyes on a delicious vision."

Copies will be sent by mail, post-paid, on receipt of price.
All the Broadway Booksellers retail it.
Oliver Street, John Bradburn, W. J. Pooley & Co., Sheldon & Co., and Sinclair Tousey wholesale it.

A LEGACY.
MY DARK DAYS ARE OVER.
MY DARK DAYS ARE OVER.

"The golden rays of promised light have dawned upon my desolate heart; the cheerless, hopeless agony of a hitherto miserable existence has passed away, with the legacy of entailed infirmities transmitted by a kind, indulgent parent. For thirty years I have suffered with Scrofula and its horrible train of concomitants—Sores, Ulcers, Weak Eyes, Strumous Discharges from the Ears, Swollen Joints, Sore Head, Sore Legs—have been my daily companions from my earliest recollection. This rich legacy I inherited from my parents. I have used almost every advertised remedy in both hemispheres without success. I at last resorted to RADWAY'S RENOVATING RESOLVENT. Five bottles have eradicated every trace of disease from my system. Life has new charms I knew not of. Oh, how happy it is to live free from disease. Until I used the Renovating Resolvent, I felt no friendship for my fellow-beings, saw no good in anything; but, with my body free from the horrid sores, and my system invested with blessed health, this existence is a Paradise! My dark days are over.

H. R. W."

Let none despair: one to six bottles of Radway's Renovating Resolvent will cure the worst forms of Scrofula, Chronic Diseases of the Glands, Skin Sores, Ulcers, Tumors, Salt Rheum, Rickets, Pimples, Blotches, &c. Price, $1 per bottle. Sold by RADWAY & CO., No. 37 Maiden-lane, corner of Gold-st., and by Druggists generally.

PROPOSALS FOR $500,000 VOLUNTEER SOLDIERS' FAMILY AID FUND BONDS, NO. SEVEN.—Sealed proposals will be received at the Comptroller's office, until Saturday, Oct. 31, 1863, at 2 o'clock P. M., when the same will be publicly opened, for the purchase, at not less than their par value, of the whole or any part of the sum of five hundred thousand dollars of the "Volunteer Soldiers' Family Aid Fund Bonds, No. 7," authorized by an ordinance of the Corporation, passed Oct. 2, 1863, and an act of the Legislature of the State of New-York, passed March 6, 1863.

The said bonds will bear interest at the rate of five per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually, on the first day of May and November in each year, and the principal will be redeemed Nov. 1, 1871.

The proposals will state the amount of bonds desired, and the price for one hundred dollars thereof, and the persons whose proposals are accepted will be required to deposit with the Chamberlain of the City, within five days after the opening of the bids, the sums awarded to them respectively.

On presenting to the Comptroller the receipts of the Chamberlain for such deposits, the parties will be entitled to receive bonds for equal amounts of the par value thereof, bearing interest from the dates of payments.

Each proposition should be sealed, and indorsed "Proposals for Volunteer Soldiers' Family Aid Fund Bonds, No. 7," and inclosed in a second envelope addressed to the Comptroller.

The right is reserved to reject any or all of the bids, if the interest of the Corporation require it.

MATTHEW T. BRENNAN, Comptroller.

AUCTION SALES.

G. W. NICHOLS, Auctioneer.

W. H. DISBROW'S GRAND AUCTION SALE OF HORSES, CARRIAGES, HARNESS, &c.,
On THURSDAY, Oct. 15, 1863,
Commencing at 1 o'clock P. M., at
MESSRS. ALLERTON'S DROVE-YARD,
5th-av. and 45th-st., New-York.

In conformity with the request of many patrons, the subscriber will offer for sale, by auction, at the above grounds, an extensive variety of the property of many private gentlemen wishing to dispose of their establishments without inconvenience or delay.
HORSES, CARRIAGES, &c.,

Mr. D. flatters himself that the above sale will be productive of great benefit to the public by bringing together a large concourse of sellers and purchasers.

The want of an appropriate place of easy access for City and country patrons by the City cars and omnibuses, is happily combined, it being on the main avenue and in the most fashionable part of the City, and having a beautiful unpaved driving and riding course one-quarter of a mile long.

Gentlemen wishing to enter their horses, &c., for the above sale, can do so at my office, 5th-av., corner of 40th-st., at any time previous to the 14th inst., on which day catalogues will be ready for distribution.

N. B.—Should the weather prove unfavorable, the sale will be postponed to Saturday, 17th inst.

ORDNANCE OFFICE, WAR DEPARTMENT,
WASHINGTON, Oct. 7, 1863.

SEALED PROPOSALS WILL BE RECEIVED at this office until 4 P. M. on the 25th of the current month of October, for 100,000 sets of infantry accoutrements, calibre 58, to be delivered in the following quantities, at the undernamed arsenals, viz.:

30,000 sets at the New-York Arsenal, Governor's Island.

20,000 sets at the Frankfort Arsenal, Bridesburgh, Penn.

20,000 sets at the Alleghany Arsenal, Pittsburgh, Penn.

20,000 at the St. Louis Arsenal, St. Louis, Mo.

10,000 sets at the United States Armory, Springfield, Mass.

These accoutrements are to be made in strict conformity with the regulation patterns, which can be seen at either of the above-named arsenals, and they are to be subject to inspection at the arsenal where delivered before being received for the Government; none to be accepted or paid for but such as are approved on inspection. The belts to be of grained leather, and all the stock to be the best oak tanned. The shoulder belt will be included in the set.

Deliveries must be made in lots of not less than 1,000 sets per week for all contracts of 10,000 sets or under; and not less than 2,000 sets per week on all contracts for over 10,000 sets; the first delivery to be made within fifteen days from date of contract. Failure to deliver at a specified time will subject the contractor to a forfeiture of the amount to be delivered at that time. The accoutrements must be boxed in the usual manner; the boxes to be charged at cost, to be determined by the inspector.

Bidders will state explicitly the arsenal or arsenals where they propose to deliver, and the number of sets they propose to deliver at each place, if for more than one.

No bids will be considered from parties other than regular manufacturers of the article, and such as are known to the department to be fully competent to execute, in their own shops, the work proposed for. Each party obtaining a contract will be required to enter into bonds, with approved sureties, for its faithful fulfillment.

The department reserves to itself the right to reject any or all bids, if not deemed satisfactory.

Proposals will be addressed to "Brigadier-General George D. Ramsay, Chief of Ordnance, Washington," and will be indorsed "Proposals for Infantry Accoutrements."

GEO. D. RAMSAY,
Brigadier-General, Chief of Ordnance.

MEDICAL.

PRIVATE DISEASES CURED IN THE shortest possible time, by Dr. WARD & CO., No. 50 Lispenard-st., near Broadway, without the use of Mercury, loss of time or change of diet. Dr. WARD, from the hospitals of London, Paris and Edinburgh, is the discoverer of the only certain and reliable remedies for diseases of a private character. In 28 years' practice he has cured more cases of Secret Diseases and Wrong Treatment than all others combined. I can and will cure you in less time and expense than any one can or will, and those who have been robbed of their money and health, call; it will take but little money and time to restore you. If you have been unfortunate, call at once. By his special experience in this much neglected branch of medical science, he is enabled to guarantee a cure in the most complicated cases. Recent cases of Gonorrhœa or Syphilis cured in a few days, without change of diet or hindrance from business. Secondary Syphilis—the last vestige eradicated without the use of Mercury. Involuntary emissions stopped in a short time. Sufferers from Impotency, or loss of sexual power, restored to full vigor in a few weeks. Permanently and speedily cured by a new treatment. Persons at a distance failing to receive prompt treatment elsewhere, may get a permanent cure effected by writing a full diagnosis of their case, addressed to Dr. WARD, No 50 Lispenard-st., the only place. Call, send for a circular, or write.

SURE CURE—BY DR. POWERS, SUCCESSfully consulted with Dr. WARD, No. 50 Lispenard-st. Conducted on the plan of the Hospital des Veneriens, Paris, where those afflicted with any form of private disease can receive prompt treatment, without risk or exposure, viz.: Syphilis, gonorrhœa gleet, strictures, ulcers, tumors, cancers, secondary and constitutional syphilis, diseases of the kidneys, &c., &c. Thirty years of extensive practice, exclusively devoted to the treatment of those complaints enable us to effect cures in cases where others of less experience have failed. Dr. Powers' Essence of Life restores the vigor of youth in four weeks. This marvelous agent restores manhood to the most shattered constitution—physical disqualifications, impediments to marriage, thereby speedily cured. The men to consult, Drs. Ward and Powers, the champions and kings of venereal diseases, possessing the most certain, speedy and only effectual remedies in the world, guarantee a perfect cure, or no charge, in from one to three days. Established in 1840. Those who have used their preventives are never without. Send for a circular. To Ladies.—Dr. Powers' Periodical Drops are a safe and certain remedy for monthly irregularities. The above remedies sent by mail. The afflicted should read their circular. Postage free, on receipt of a stamp. Cures warranted.

MANHOOD AND THE VIGOR OF YOUTH regained in three days by Dr. POWERS' ESSENCE OF LIFE. This wonderful agent restores manhood to the most shattered constitution, radically curing Seminal Weakness, Sexual Debility, and impediments to marriage generally; Nervousness, Mental and Physical Incapacity, resulting from self-abuse, &c. The time required to cure the most inveterate case is one week. Failure is impossible. This life-restoring remedy should be taken by all about to marry, as its effects are permanent. Young man, are you subject to that soul and body destroying disease, secret habits? Dr. POWERS' Invigorating Essence is a never-failing cure. Sold by WALTER POWERS, M. D., No. 50 Lispenard-st., between Broadway and Church-st., New-York.

IMPORTANT TO THE MARRIED AND THOSE ABOUT TO BE MARRIED.—Dr. A. M. MAURICEAU, Professor of Diseases of Women, has just published the 160th edition of the valuable book, entitled "THE MARRIED WOMAN'S PRIVATE MEDICAL COMPANION," strictly intended for those whose health or circumstances forbid a too rapid increase of family. Price $1. Sold at his office, No. 129 Liberty-st., New-York; or can be sent by mail, free of postage, to any part of the United States and Canada, by inclosing $1, and addressing Box No. 1,224 New-York City. For sale by H. RICHARDSON, at No. 1 Vesey-st., (Astor House,) and No. 18 Ann-st.; FEDERHEN & CO., 13 Court-st., Boston.

DR. COBBETT, MEMBER OF THE N. Y. University, (Medical College,) and Royal College of Surgeons, London, has removed from No. 19 Duane-st. to his present very convenient suite of offices at No. 22 Centre-st., between Chambers and Reade sts., with a private entrance at No. 6 City Hall-place, where he can be consulted with the most honorable confidence on all diseases affecting the urinary organs; thirty years in his present specialty, (three of which have been at the Hospitals of this City,) enable him to guarantee a cure in every case undertaken, or make no charge. Strictures of the urethra, impotency, seminal weaknesses, &c., treated on the most scientific principles. N. B.—As a proof of Dr. C.'s qualifications, he would call special attention to his Diplomas, which can be seen in his office.

DR. COOPER, NO. 14 DUANE-ST., MAY BE confidently consulted on all diseases of a private nature. A practice of 30 years, devoted to the treatment and cure of Syphilitic, Mercurial and diseases of a delicate nature, enables Dr. C. to make speedy and permanent cures, no matter of how long standing the case may be. Strictures of the urethra and seminal weakness, brought on by a secret habit, effectually cured. The victims of misplaced confidence, who have been misled by quack advertisements, can call on Dr. C. with the certainty of being radically cured. N. B.—Dr. C. is a qualified physician and surgeon, and a member of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of New-York. Office hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.

SPERMATORRHEA OR SEMINAL WEAKNESS, AND EVERY SPECIES OF GENITAL IRRITABILITY IN EITHER SEX,
Will be promptly, radically and permanently cured, however caused, or however aggravated, by the use of from ONE to SIX boxes of WINCHESTER'S SPECIFIC PILL.

It is NOT a homeopathic remedy, nor does it contain iron, cantharides, mercury or any injurious ingredient. Read the following

PROFESSIONAL OPINIONS:

"We believe it to be as near a SPECIFIC as any medicine can be."—B. KEITH, M. D., New-York.

"I have used your SPECIFIC PILL in many cases of SPERMATORRHEA, and WITH THE MOST PERFECT SUCCESS."—J. MILTON SANDERS, M. D., LL. D., Brooklyn.

Price—$1 per box, six boxes (at one time) for $5. Sent safely by mail. Circulars and preliminary advice, free. Letters confidential. Sold, Wholesale and Retail, by J. WINCHESTER, No. 36 John-st., New-York.

DR. WARD'S MAGICAL INVIGORATORS, IN the form of Pills, will, in fifteen minutes after being taken, make the recipient as vigorous as if nature had never been retarded or debilitated. To the unmarried or single, in every physical exigency, this unrivaled medicine is earnestly recommended as a complete restorative of the nervous system where manhood has been impaired. Procured of Dr. WARD, No. 50 Lispenard-st., between Broadway and Church-st. Call or send for circulars.

DR. POWERS' PERIODICAL DROPS are designed for both married and single ladies, and are the very best thing known for the purpose, as they will bring on the monthly sickness in cases of obstruction from any cause, and after all other remedies of the kind have been tried in vain. Expressly for obstinate cases. Warranted as represented in every respect, or the price will be refunded. ☞ Beware of imitations! Purchase directly of Dr POWERS, 50 Lispenard-st., New-York.

DR HUNTER'S RED DROP RESTORES the vigor of youth in four days. Restores manhood to the most shattered system. No. 3 Division-st., New-York, the only place. Beware of bogus Dr. Hunters. The City is full of knaves, up to every trick to rob him of his great reputation as a skillful and reliable physician. No other office but No. 3 Division-st. Established in 1834. Eight separate rooms and a private entrance.

SOMETHING FOR EVERY LADY.—DR. WARD'S Great Female Benefactor or Golden Regulating Pills. Infallible in correcting, regulating and removing all obstructions, from whatever cause, and they will never disappoint the anxious patient. Office No. 50 Lispenard-st., near Broadway, where Dr. WARD can be consulted, confidentially, day and evening.

OLD DR. HUBBARD'S FEMALE PILLS are far superior to all others now in use. Price three dollars and five dollars per box. C. N. CRITTENTON, General Agent, No. 38 6th-av., corner of 4th-st. Sent by mail on receipt of price. For sale in Brooklyn at Nos. 20 and 204 Fulton-av.

ADVICE TO LADIES.—IN ALL CASES where infallible medicines are desired, or mode of treatment that never fails, call upon Dr. A. M. MAURICEAU, Professor of diseases of Women, author of "The Married Woman's Private Medical Companion," who treats female complaints exclusively. Office 129 Liberty-st.

SUFFERERS FROM THE EFFECTS OF self-abuse will receive advice which will save them many a dollar by addressing a former fellow-sufferer.
W. M. STEDMAN,
Camden, N. J.

PRIVATE CONSULTATION.—DR. HUNTER has for thirty years confined his attention to diseases of a certain class, in which he has treated no less than fifty thousand cases without an instance of failure. His great remedy, HUNTER'S RED DROP, cures certain diseases when regular treatment and all other remedies fail; cures without dieting or restriction in the habits of the patient; cures without the disgusting and sickening effects of all other remedies; cures in new cases in less than six hours; cures without the dreadful consequent effects of mercury, but possesses the peculiarly valuable property of annihilating the rank and poisonous taint that the blood is sure to absorb unless his remedy is used. That is what he claims for it, and what no other will accomplish. Its value in this respect has become so well known, that scientific men in every department of medical knowledge begin to appreciate it, for hardly a week passes that he is not consulted by druggists, chemists and physicians in regard to some pitiful patient who has exhausted the whole field of the faculty, and still the disease will appear. Its popularity is so great that there is not a quack doctor in the City that has not attacked it, and when they find their lies are not so easily swallowed, they then pretend that they can make it. It is $1 a vial, and cannot be obtained genuine anywhere but at the old office, No. 3 Division-st. Book for 15 three-cent stamps, 800 pages, 100 colored illustrations. The best work out.

THE REBELLION.

How the Secessionists were Foiled in their Scheme for Getting Maryland.

THE ARREST OF DISUNION MEMBERS OF THE LEGISLATURE.

It is well known that in several of the Southern States acts of secession were passed in defiance of the will of the people. The Virginia Convention contained a decided majority of members elected expressly as Union men, and yet by bribery, intimidation, cheating and every political trick which desperate and unscrupulous traitors could possibly devise, a majority of the Convention was induced to pass a secession ordinance, and the people of the State were thus betrayed into the rebel Confederacy. Similar devices were used in other Southern States. It is notorious that in the Fall of 1861 the rebels intended to get possession of Maryland in the same manner—the secession members of the Legislature that was to meet in September being relied on to take the necessary preliminary steps. Fortunately for the people of Maryland, as well as for the country at large, the Government became aware of these treasonable schemes, and took prompt and effectual measures to defeat them. How it was done may be seen in part from the following letters and orders issued at the time by the Secretary of War, by Gen. McCLELLAN, by Gen. BANKS and other officers of the Government. It is not too much to say that if the Government could have acted with equal vigor and promptness in the case of Virginia and some other States, they would have been spared the ruin and desolation which the double treachery of their own leaders has brought upon them.

The following letters are copied from the Leader, which professes to have extracted them from a secession pamphlet, lately published in Baltimore:

LETTER FROM SIMON CAMERON, IN RELATION TO THE MARYLAND LEGISLATURE.

WAR DEPARTMENT, Sept. 11, 1861.

GENERAL: The passage of any act of secession by the Legislature of Maryland must be prevented. If necessary all, or any part, of the members must be arrested. Exercise your own judgment as to the time and manner, but do the work effectively.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,
SIMON CAMERON, Secretary of War.

LETTERS FROM MAJ.-GEN. M'CLELLAN AND HIS CHIEF OF STAFF.

[Confidential.]

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC,
WASHINGTON, Sept. 12, 1861.

Maj.-Gen. N. P. Banks, U. S. A.:

GENERAL: After full consultation with the Presdt., Secr'ys of State, War, &c., it has been decided to effect the operation proposed for the 17th. Arrangements have been made to have a Govt. Steamer at Annapolis to receive the prisoners, & carry them to their destination.

Some four or five of the chief men in the affair are to be arrested to-day. When they meet on the 17th, you will please have everything prepared to arrest the whole party, & be sure that none escape.

It is understood that you arranged with Gen. DIX and Gov. SEWARD the modus operandi. It has been intimated to me that the meeting might take place on the 14th; please be prepared. I would be glad to have you advise me frequently of your arrangements in regard to this very important matter.

If it is successfully carried out it will go far toward breaking the back-bone of the rebellion. It would probably be well to have a special train quietly prepared to take prisoners to Annapolis.

I leave this exceedingly important affair to your tact and discretion—and have but one thing to impress upon you—the absolute necessity of secrecy and success. With the highest regard, I am, my dear General, your sincere friend.

GEO. B. McCLELLAN, Maj.-Gen. U. S. A.

LETTER FROM R. B. MARCY, CHIEF OF STATE.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC,
WASHINGTON, Sept. 12, 1861.

Maj.-Gen. N. P. Banks, Com'g near Darnestown, Md.:

GENERAL: Inclosed I have the honor to send you an order regarding the Legislature of Maryland. Will you do me the favor to acknowledge its receipts by the bearer. Very respectfully, your ob't ser't.

R. B. MARCY, Col. and Chief of Staff.

COPY OF LETTER OF INSTRUCTIONS CONCERNING LEGISLATURE.

[Important and confidential.]

HEADQUARTERS, CAMP NEAR DARNESTOWN,
Sept. 16, 1863.

Lieut.-Col. RUGER, Commanding Third Wisconsin Regiment, on special service at Frederick:

SIR: The Legislature of Maryland is appointed to meet in special session to-morrow—Tuesday—Sept. 16. It is not impossible that the members, or a portion of them, may be deterred from meeting there on account of certain arrests recently made in Baltimore. It is also quite possible that on the first day of meeting the attendance may be small. Of the facts, as to this matter, I shall see that you are well informed, as they transpire. It becomes necessary that any meeting of this Legislature, at any place or time, shall be prevented. You will hold yourself and your command in readiness, to arrest the members of both Houses; a list of such as you are to detain will be inclosed to you, herewith, among whom are to be specially included the Presiding officers of the two Houses, Secretaries, clerks, and all subordinate officers. Let the arrests be certain, and allow no chance of failure—the arrests should be made while they are in session, I think.

You will, upon receipt of this, quietly examine the premises. I am informed that escape will be impossible, if the entrance to the building be held by you; of that you will judge upon examination. If no session is held, you will arrest such members as can be found in Frederick. The process of arrest should be to enter both houses at the same time, announcing that they were arrested by orders of the Government, command them to remain as they are, subject to your orders. Any resistance will be forcibly suppressed, whatever the consequences. Upon the arrests being effected, the members that are to be detained will be placed on board a special train for Annapolis, where a steamer will await them.

Everything in the execution of these orders is confided to your secrecy, discretion and promptness.

COPELAND'S REPORT OF ARREST OF MEMBERS OF MARYLAND LEGISLATURE, SEPT. 18.

FREDERICK, Md., Sept. 18, 1861.

To Maj.-Genl. Banks, Darnestown:

SIR: I have just telegraphed to Genl. DIX, that we have seized seven members of the house of a very bitter character, and from officers, clerks, &c., who are intensely bitter, and are said to have been very forward and to have kept some of the weaker men up to the work. Several arrests were made of violent or resisting persons, whom I shall let go after the others are gone. I shall send four men at least to Gen. DIX, at Baltimore, who are very bad men. I have advised Col. RUGER to send to Sharpsburgh landing, to seize 500 sacks of salt, which are waiting for the Southerners to come and take them. They have tried twice to do it. We have also heard of some arms, which the Colonel will look up. There is a very bitter man here, a Mr. Sinn, who is currently reported by Gen. Shriver and others to be the medium of communication with the Southern Confederacy. The names of the members are: B. S. Salmon, R. C. Maccubbin, J. H. Gordon, C. J. Durant, Thos. Claggett, Andrew Kessler, and Bernard Mills. We shall get T. Lawrence Jones. The officers of the Legislature: J. N. Brewer, Chief Clerk, Senate; Thos. Moore, Reading do.; Saml. Penrose, Jr., Assistant; N. Kilgore, Reading do.; Milton Kidd, Chief of the House. Mr. Jones is taken. Edw'd Houser, citizen. Riley, (very bad,) Printer to the House. John Hogan, (very bad,) citizen. Joseph Elkins, do. Mr. Mason, Folder to the House. We shall leave here for headquarters this afternoon. The arrests were nearly all seized by the Policemen. I am yours, respectfully,

R. MORRIS COPELAND, Aid-de-Camp.

Mr. McCUBBIN is a person whom I should recommend you to set at large if he takes the oath, which I have no doubt he will. He is brother-in-law to Gen. HAMMOND, and a man much respected—also a man of rather timid nature, and greatly troubled by his arrest. Gen. SHRIVER has been very active for us, and is very earnest that we should let him go on these terms. If you can do it, it will be well to telegraph to Annapolis to have the oath tendered, and release him. I should do it under my instructions, only that Col. RUGER thinks he has no authority to allow any man on the list any liberty. R. M. C.

MAJ.-GEN. M'CLELLAN CONCERNING PRISONERS FOR STEAMER AT ANNAPOLIS.

To Maj. Genl. Banks:

Have you any more of your friends to send from Frederick to Annapolis. Please answer at once. I wish to know on account of ordering off Boat.

Maj. Genl. McCLELLAN.

GOV. HICKS IN RELATION TO ELECTION.

EXECUTIVE CHAMBER, ANNAPOLIS, Oct. 26, 1863.

Maj'r-Gen. N. P. Banks, U. S. A.:

MY DEAR SIR: I should have written at an earlier day, but delayed for return of GEO. W. HOWARD, who had been sent down the Potomac by Maj'r-Genl. McCLELLAN, and soon after his, H's, return the papers represented you to have gone with your forces into Virginia. Indeed, I dislike to occupy a moment of your closely occupied time, and write now only because I feel it due from me, in view of your uniform courtesy and kindness to me; of which I shall always entertain most grateful recollections.

You will excuse me, I am sure, for suggesting the importance of looking closely to Maryland, until our election is over, 6th Nov.

The Confederates will endeavor to effect something by which to operate on our elections—you may suppose My Dear Sir, that I am anxious to have a Killing majority rolled up agt Secessionism. Not only am I, and is Md deeply interested, but the Govt. is greatly concerned. Will it be possible to have Col. KENLY's Regt. placed near Balt., temporarily, so as to save their votes, I hope so—I have the honor to be with very great respect

Yr Ob't Servt, THO. H. HICKS.

ORDER FROM THE SECRETARY OF WAR AND GEN. M'CLELLAN—RELATIVE TO THE VOTING OF MARYLAND TROOPS.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC,
WASHINGTON, Oct. 29, 1861.

Major-Gen. N. P. Banks, Commanding, &c.:

GENERAL: Pursuant to directions from the Secretary of War of the 28th instant, of which I inclose a copy, the Major-General Commanding directs that such soldiers of the First, Second and Third regiments of Maryland Volunteers as may be within the limits of your command receive furloughs for such a length of time as will enable them to reach the place wherein they may be entitled to vote by the 6th of November. Wherever it may be necessary, in order to facilitate the presence of these men at their places of voting, to furnish them transportation, it may be furnished. It is desired that the most liberal and prompt circulation may be given to these instructions, in order to secure with certainty the carrying into effect the design proposed.

Sufficient time is to be allowed the soldiers thus furloughed to enable them to return after voting without exceeding the term fixed for their furlough; but a prompt return is desired.

Whenever it may be necessary, the absent soldiers should be replaced for the time by other troops.

The General Commanding desires that the receipt of this communication be acknowledged at once.

I have the honor to be, General, very respectfully, your obedient servant.

J. WILLIAMS, Asst. Adjt.-Gen.

WAR DEPARTMENT,
WASHINGTON, Oct. 28, 1861.

Maj.-Gen. McClellan, Commanding:

SIR: In order to have a full vote in Maryland at the coming election, Wednesday, Nov. 6, so that the legal voters may decide by their ballots all public questions, you are hereby directed to grant three days' furlough to the soldiers of the First, Second and Third regiments of Maryland Volunteers, all to return to duty on Thursday, Nov. 7.

Very respectfully,
(Signed,) SIMON CAMERON,
Secretary of War.

INSTRUCTIONS OF R. B. MARCY, CHIEF OF STAFF, CONCERNING MARYLAND ELECTIONS.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC,
WASHINGTON, Oct. 20, 1861.

GENERAL: There is an apprehension among Union citizens in many parts of Maryland of an attempt at interference with their rights of suffrage by disunion citizens on the occasion of the election, to take place on the 6th of November next.

In order to prevent this, the Major-General Commanding directs that you send detachments of a sufficient number of men to the different points in your vicinity where the elections are to be held, to protect the Union voters, and to see that no disunionists are allowed to intimidate them, or in any way to interfere with their rights.

He also desires you to arrest and hold in confinement till after the election, all disunionists who are known to have returned from Virginia recently, and who show themselves at the polls, and to guard effectually against any invasion of the peace and order of the elections. For the purpose of carrying out these instructions, you are authorized to suspend the habeas corpus. Gen. STONE has received similar instructions to these. You will please confer with him as to the particular points that each shall take the control of.

I am, sir, very respectfully, your obedient servant,
R. B. MARCY, Chief of Staff.
To Maj.-Gen. N. P. BANKS, Commanding Division, Muddy Branch, Md.

GEN. SHRIVER, FREDERICK, ON ELECTION DISTRICTS IN FREDK. CO. NO ANSWER.

FREDERICK, Nov. 1, 1861.

Gen. N. P. Banks.

MY DEAR SIR:—On my return home to-night, your favor of the 30th ult. was handed me by Capt. STONE.

In one County there are two or three districts in which our friends apprehend interference by disloyal men on election day. I have consulted with some of our most reliable friends, and we all concur in the opinion that a body of men thrown into Frederick on Monday and Tuesday next, and then divided into squads and placed in the different districts of the County on the day of election, will not only prevent disloyal men from interfering with and overawing our friends, but will have the additional effect of keeping such men from the Polls. Cavalry would answer better then Infantry as our county is divided into seventeen districts, and some of them twenty and twenty-five miles off in a mountainous country. I would also suggest that whatever force is sent here be placed under command of Capt. STONE, who seems fully to understand the duty to be performed. In the First Md. Reg't, commanded by Col. KENLY, there are at least fifty men entitled to their votes in our County; they are principally to be found in the company commanded by Capt. B. H. SCHLEY. We should be gratified to have these men sent home to the election.

With great respect, I am very truly yours,
EDWD. SHRIVER.

COL. KENLEY'S REPORT ON FURLOUGHED MEN, VOTERS AT STATE ELECTION.

HEADQUARTERS FIRST MARYLAND REGIMENT,
MUDDY BRANCH CAMP, Nov. 14, 1861.

SIR: I have the honor to report that the men of my regiment which left this camp for the purpose of voting at the last State election in Maryland, have all returned with the exception of from twenty to twenty-five.

Some few are detained home by sickness, as I have received certificates from their attending physicians; the majority of the balance of the absentees are under arrest in Washington, (as I have been informed,) not having passes with them.

I am, very respectfully, your obedient servant,
JOHN R. KENLEY,
Colonel First Maryland Regiment.

The Atlantic Telegraph.

To the Editor of the New-York Times:

May I trespass so far as to ask for an explanation of one point in connection with the recent statements in behalf of the Atlantic Telegraph enterprise? It was affirmed that the entire amount of capital (£600,000) necessary for the work had already been obtained. Nevertheless, an appeal was made for further offerings of money in America. You can, doubtless, relieve the obscurity arising from this apparent contradiction.

Allow me to add that when this project was revived and brought prominently before the public here, I went with a friend to find the office of subscription, but sought for it in vain. From that time to this nothing has been done, so far as I know, to enlighten the public, or afford facilities for subscribing. If there be any remaining stock, would it not be well to have a distinct, unambiguous statement of the terms and conditions of subscription, of the par value of the shares, and where they may be taken? The varied aspects of this great work render it peculiarly interesting to multitudes who have no large amounts to embark in it; and I venture these suggestions, not as a capitalist, but as ONE OF THE PEOPLE.

We give place to the above in order, if possible, to elicit the information sought after, from the proper quarter.

THE POLITICAL CAMPAIGN IN PENNSYLVANIA.—Hon. HENRY J. RAYMOND, editor of that discreet and statesmanlike paper, the NEW-YORK DAILY TIMES, is doing effective service to the friends of the Union cause in Pennsylvania. The speech at the hall of the National Guards was fittingly and eloquently followed by another fine argument before the friends of the Government and the war at Chestnut Hill yesterday evening. There is something in the style and in the utterances of Gov. RAYMOND, which, added to the fact that he is at the head of a great newspaper, entirely independent of party patronage, and, therefore, able to speak his real feelings, that gives signal value to his sentiments in this momentous crisis.—Philadelphia Press.

GENERAL MARKETS.

NEW-YORK, Saturday, Oct. 10, 1863—6 P. M.

The receipts of the principal kinds of Produce since our last have been: 39 bbls. Ashes, 13,848 bbls. Flour, 30 bbls. and 536 bags Corn Meal, 156,348 bush. Wheat, 91,025 bush. Corn, 12,090 bush. Rye, 15,642 bush. Barley, 26,425 bush. Oats, 657 bush. Malt, 812 pkgs. Provisions, and 285 bbls. Whisky.

ASHES—Are quiet but firm, including Pots, at $7 50@$7 62½, and Pearls at $9 ₱ 100 ℔s. Stock in the Inspection Warehouse, this morning, 412 bbls., including 345 bbls. Pots and 67 bbls. Pearls.

BARK—Sales in Philadelphia, during the week, 100 hhds. No. 1 Quercitron, at $31@$32 ₱ ton.

COAL—Is in good request at very full prices. The Philadelphia Ledger, in the course of some remarks on the high prices of coal, says: "A month ago, the freight by sea to Boston was as nearly as may be $1 75 ₱ ton, against $2 25 same time last year, making a difference of 50c. ₱ ton cheaper this year than last, when there was a very urgent demand by the Government for almost every description of water craft. To Rhode Island the freights were about 15c. ₱ ton cheaper than last year, from the same cause, while to New-York the freight charges were 15c.@20c. ₱ ton dearer this year than last—or $1 25@$1 30 ₱ ton, against $1 10 last year. The difference is accounted for in the fact that, last year as well as this, the New-York market was reached and mainly supplied by inland communication, while Boston was supplied by sea. The inland freights on Coal are, this year, very considerably increased. They started higher in the Spring, and have been added to at the rate of 20 cents ₱ ton almost every month since; besides which, Coal is about $1 50 ₱ ton higher at the mines than last year, in consequence of increased wages in almost every department of Coal production. This necessarily advances the price to consumers. The cost of Lehigh Stove Coal in this city, delivered in the cellar, is, at this time, $9 30@$9 50 ₱ ton of 2,240 ℔s., and we are assured by dealers that profits at this price are no greater than they were at the lower prices realized last year. There is scarcely a family using Coal that, with a little care, could not realize all the necessary heat and usefulness for household purposes with at least 20 ₱ cent. less of Coal. When Coal was delivered in our cellars here at a cost of $4@$4 50 ₱ ton, the price was so low as to encourage improvident habits in its use, which, at present prices of fuel, are felt to be a most onerous tax."

COFFEE—Is inactive at former figures, including Java, at 38c.@39c.; Ceylon, 33½c.@34c.; Rio, 30½c.@33½c.; Laguayra and Maracaibo, 32c.@34c.; St. Domingo, 27c.@28c. ₱ ℔.

COTTON—Is moderately inquired for and is quite buoyant. Middlings, 90c.@91c. ₱ ℔.; sales and resales since our last, 1,350 bales.

FISH—The inquiry for Dry Cod and Pickled Mackerel has been moderate, while that for Pickled and Smoked Herring has been fair at uniform quotations.

FLOUR AND MEAL—State and Western Flour is more active, to-day, at a general advance of 10c. @20c., ₱ bbl. Sales, since our last, 20,000 bbls., including Unsound, at $4 50@$5 50; Superfine State and Western, at $5 25@$5 60; poor to choice extra State at $5 75@$6 45, chiefly at $5 90@$6 15 round-hoop extra Ohio, shipping brands, at $6 40@$6 60 ₱ bbl.

Southern Flour is in good demand at former prices. Sales since our last, 2,400 bbls., at $6 20@$7 15 for poor to good superfine, $7 20@$8 20 for fancy to choice brands, and $8 25@$9 50 for very superior family brands, ₱ bbl. Canadian Flour is decidedly firmer. Sales, 1,250 bbls. Extra, at $5 80@$7 80 ₱ bbl. Rye Flour is in fair demand at $5 30@$5 90 for superfine, ₱ bbl.; sales, 500 bbls. Corn Meal continues in light supply and moderate request at $4 70@$4 75 for Jersey; $4 90 for Marsh's Caloric; $5@$5 10 for Fairfax, and $5 10@$5 15 for Brandywine, ₱ bbl. Sales 800 bbls.

GRAIN—Wheat has been unusually active to-day, the demand having been chiefly speculative, and prices have advanced 6c.@8c. ₱ bushel. Sales since our last, 265,000 bushels, part to arrive, including White Western at $1 55@$1 70; Amber Western at $1 43 @$1 49, the latter an extreme rate; Red Western at $1 34@$1 43; mixed do., at $1 35; Amber Iowa and Wisconsin at $1 33@$1 39; Milwaukee Club at $1 22@$1 33; Chicago Spring at $1 18@$1 25; choice new do., $1 34@$1 36; White Genesee, at $1 55; red State, at $1 42 ₱ bushel. Corn has been in lively demand, chiefly on speculation, at, however, irregular prices; sales reported of 290,000 bushels, partly to arrive and from store, at $1 01@$1 04, closing at $1 02@$1 03 for sound Mixed Western; 98c.@$1 01 for unsound do.; $1 04@$1 05 for Yellow Western and White do., ₱ bushel, closing heavily. Rye continues scarce and in demand at $1 12@$1 18, according to quality, ₱ bushel. Sales 3,400 bush. Oats are unusually brisk to-day, at much higher prices, including Canada at 84c.@89½c.; Western at 84c.@90c.; State at 86c.@90c., ₱ bushel. Barley continues in good demand at $1 35@$1 45 ₱ bushel; sales 13,000 bushels, part to arrive. Barley Malt, at $1 55@$1 65 ₱ bushel.

HAY—North River Bale is actively inquired for and is up at $1 05@$1 25 ₱ 100 ℔s.

HIDES—Receipts have been very moderate and sales large during the past week, the market closing buoyantly. The week's receipts comprised 32,744 hides, and 100 bales hides; sales, 117,600 hides, the latter, including according to Messrs. IRON—Is held firmly, but is quiet here to-day. The Philadelphia North American says: "The market continues buoyant and excited, and most of the makers of Pig metal being sold up, the only sales we hear of are 300 tons gray forge at $33 cash, and 600 tons hot blast charcoal at $40, 4 months. Cold blast is worth $50 ₱ ton, and Anthracite $36 for No. 1 and $35 for No. 2, cash, and little or none offering. Scotch Pig is wanted and very scarce at $38. Of manufactured the sales are light and prices very firm, most of the mills being busy with old orders, and not disposed to contract except at an advance of $3@$5 ₱ ton."

LATHS—Eastern are in fair demand at from $1 45 @$1 50 ₱ thousand.

LEATHER—The week's business in this line has been heavy, and prices have favored sellers. An auction sale of 4,500 sides (chiefly crop leather,) was held in Boston on Wednesday last. Most of the lots offered realized satisfactory prices to the owners. Week's receipts of sole leather about 52,000 sides.

PROVISIONS—Pork has been in more demand, at advanced prices. Sales, since our last, 4,700 bbls., in lots, at $15 37½@$15 62 for New Mess; $13 87@$14 for Old Mess, and $11@$11 50 for Prime, ₱ bbl. Cut Meats are in demand, at 8½c. @9½c. for Hams, and 5¾c.@6¼c. for Shoulders, ₱ ℔. Bacon continues in request, at 6½c.@9½c., according to quality, ₱ ℔. Sales, 540 boxes. Lard is brisker and firmer; sales 4,200 tcs. and bbls., for immediate and future delivery, at 11¼c.@11½c., and small lots of very choice, 11¾c. ₱ ℔. Beef continues in moderate demand, at uniform prices; sales 130 bbls., at $13 75@$15 for Extra Mess, and $10 50@$13 25 for Plain Mess, ₱ bbl. Beef Hams, $16@$18 ₱ bbl. Butter is selling freely, at 19c.@23c. for poor to choice Western, and 22c.@27c. for common to prime State, ₱ ℔. Cheese continues in lively request, at 10½c.@15c. ₱ ℔.

SKINS—Are in fair demand, but the high prices asked check transactions.

SUGARS—Continue in fair demand at buoyant prices; sales since our last, 800 hhds., including New-Orleans (partly at auction) at 12½c.@15½c.; and Cuba at 11¼c.@13c., with 570 boxes Havana, part at 12c.@12½c., ₱ ℔.

TALLOW—Sales to-day, 205,000 ℔s., at 11¾c.@12¼c., chiefly at 11¾c.@12c., and 175 pkgs. grease, at 10c.@10½c. ₱ ℔.

TOBACCO—Is in fair demand at well-sustained prices; sales since our last, 513 hhds. Kentucky at 14c.@24c.; 85 bales Yara on private terms, and 372 cases Seed-leaf at 19c.@48c. ₱ ℔.

WHISKY—Sales to-day, 900 bbls., in lots, at 64c. @65c. ₱ gallon.

FREIGHTS—Have been quiet at former quotations. For Liverpool, the engagements included 2,000 bbls. Flour, at 1s. 6d. ₱ bbl.; 25,000 bushels Wheat, at 5¼d.@6d. ₱ bushel; and 106 tons Heavy Goods, at 18s. 6d.@20s. ₱ ton. For London, 500 bbls. Flour, at 2s., and 1,000 bbls. Oil Cake, on private terms. ₱ bbl. For an Irish port, direct, a cargo of Wheat, at 5s. 3d. ₱ quarter. The latest charters, according to the Shipping List, have been: A Norwegian bark, 413 tons, to Lisbon, heavy Pipe Staves at $40; a Hamburg brig, 350 tons, now at New-Bedford, from East Machias to Buenos Ayres, Lumber, $19, gold; a British brig, 160 tons, to Matamoras and back, $4,000, half gold; a brig 106 tons, from Machias to Kingston, Jamaica, Lumber, $11 ₱ M., and back, Logwood, $4 ₱ ton; a British brig, 193 tons, and a British schooner, 138 tons, to South Side Cuba and back, each $2,000, part gold; a British brig, 99 tons, to the Windward, $1 ₱ bbl. gold; a brig from St. Jago to New-York, 350 hhds. DR. C. M. JACKSON, PHILADELPHIA, PA.,
WILL EFFECTUALLY CURE
LIVER COMPLAINT,
DYSPEPSIA,
JAUNDICE,
Chronic or Nervous Debility, Diseases of the Kidneys and all diseases arising from a disordered Liver or Stomach, such as Constipation, Inward Piles, Fullness or Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fullness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried and Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Fever and Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, &c., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and great Depression of Spirits.

And will positively prevent YELLOW FEVER, BILIOUS FEVER, &c.

THEY CONTAIN
NO ALCOHOL OR BAD WHISKY!

They will cure the above diseases in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred.

Induced by the extensive sale and universal popularity of Hoofland's German Bitters, (purely vegetable,) hosts of ignorant Quacks and unscrupulous adventurers, have opened upon suffering humanity the flood-gates of Nostrums in the shape of poor whisky, vilely compounded with injurious drugs, and christened Tonics, Stomachics and Bitters.

Beware of the innumerable array of Alcoholic preparations in plethoric bottles and big-bellied kegs, under the modest appellation of Bitters, which instead of curing only aggravate disease, and leave the disappointed sufferer in despair.

Do you want something to strengthen you?
Do you want a good appetite?
Do you want to build up your constitution?
Do you want to feel well?
Do you want to get rid of nervousness?
Do you want energy?
Do you want to sleep well?
Do you want a brisk and vigorous feeling?

If you do, use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this City, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.

J. NEWTON BROWN.
PHILADELPHIA, June 23, 1861.

PARTICULAR NOTICE.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, put up in quart bottles, compounded of the cheapest whisky or common rum, costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon, the taste disguised by Anise or Coriander Seed.

This class of Bitters has caused, and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard. By their use, the system is kept continually under the influence of alcoholic stimulants of the worst kind, the desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the result is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death.

For those who desire and will have a Liquor Bitters we publish the following receipt. Get one bottle Hoofland's German Bitters and mix with three quarts of good brandy or whisky, and the result will be a preparation that will far excel in medicinal virtues and true excellence any of the numerous Liquor Bitters in the market and will cost much less. You will have all the virtues of HOOFLAND'S BITTERS in connection with a good article of Liquor, at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you.

ATTENTION, SOLDIERS!
AND FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS.

We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "Hoofland's German Bitters" will cure nine-tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed. We have no hesitation in stating, that if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost.

We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well-authenticated cure of one of the nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own language, "has been saved by the Bitters."

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 23, 1863.

MESSRS. JONES & EVANS: Well, gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery, and under the immediate command of Capt. R. B. Ayres. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was attacked in November last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for seventy-two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this City on board the steamer State of Maine, from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as any one could be, and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything, and if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again.

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these circumstances, and accordingly the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such a disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinbron, of Sixth, below Arch-street, advised me, as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months; for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken the place of vague fears—to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life.

Very truly yours,
ISAAC MALONE.

We fully concur in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade, Mr. Malone, restored to health.
